

Mr. Allen Parker Miegel Jr.

April 14, 1928 - April 3, 2019

Allen P. Miegel, Jr. was born in Atlanta in 1928 to Allen Parker Miegel, Sr. of Augusta, GA and Sally Elizabeth Miegel of Fitzgerald, GA.

He spent his childhood in West End Atlanta and moved to Marietta at age 14. He graduated from North Fulton High School and attended North Georgia College, graduating in 1950, receiving his commission in the United States Army Reserve.

In conjunction with his 29 years of Army service, he was in sales and retired from Brown Distributing Company of Atlanta.

He devoted many years as a youth soccer coach at the Cobb YMCA, where he developed many life-long friendships.

He enjoyed spending time with his family, his old cars, western movies and earning medals at the Senior Olympics.

He will be remembered for his devotion to his family and his sense of humor.

Al was a long time member of Mt. Bethel United Methodist Church.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Jane Miegel and his parents.

He is survived by son, Allen W. Miegel (wife Janet), son Reid Miegel, and grandson, Mitchell Miegel.

Al will be missed.

“ Uncle Al will always be the "real" southern gentleman in my memories. He was always welcoming every time I came for visits. He taught me how to really eat a whole lobster. Uncle Al will be in my memories forever as a huge part of my life.
