It was with great sadness when I heard of Chuck's passing this past Monday. He always brighten up a room when he came in and always enjoyed his work.

He was admired by all those that worked under his direction over the years and he admired them all as well.

Chuck and I interfaced many times while I was in manufacturing with Union Camp and he always had some good ideas to bring to the table. Union Camp was unique in that we all saw ourselves as being a part of a large family. Chuck was the kind of guy that helped make our division have a family atmosphere. He will be sadly missed by all that knew him.

My best regards to Marilyn and the family.

My deepest sympathies are with you as I know that Mr. McConnell was loved by many people, HIS family as well as his Union Camp family. Although I only worked with Mr. McConnell for a year or so, he was always kind and a "father figure" to me. My father, Larry J. Wilson (died 7-25-08), worked in the Bag Division (for 40 years) as well so all of the former employees hold a special place in my heart. I pray for peace during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Amy Wilson Murray##imported-end##
