“ I remember mom always being there for us. Every time we were sick she was there. Every time we fell and skinned our knees she was there. When we got older whenever you called she was there. Whenever you went over to the house she was there. She loved to celebrate our birthdays and holidays making them all special. She always just wanted to be a wife and mother and she was always there. Love you and miss you very much. Debby

“ Debby,

We're praying that with each day, God brings you peace and comfort in your mind and your heart. Know that your mom lived a beautiful life and was loved by many. She's home with the lord now and she's made whole again!

Love you!
Nicole

“ Ann will be missed on this earth; she was a kind and thoughtful soul who took care of a few of the neighborhood kitties, keeping a watchful eye out for them when dogs would come near. She loved her military life and husband and children so much. It was great that Debbie was nearby to keep an eye on her Mother, and to be with her till the very end. We don't all have that precious opportunity to be there with our loved one on their last breath, I have to say that was a gift from God, that one can be there at that time. Ann is in the arms now of her beloved father, our Lord and Savior. God Bless the children of Ann and they are traveling through this difficult time. Please know that you are all loved and will be loved.

“ Ann was one of my favorites at the cottages. When my Daughter was fighting cancer Ann brought me a small ceramic cross. It meant so much to me. I still have it hanging With memories of Ann. She always had a smile on her face and something funny to say

We send our love and sympathy to family and all that knew her.

Love,

“ It is with the most heart felt sympathy and deepest condolences that I express my love and thanks to Debbie for allowing us to take care of her Mom. Ann was affectionately known as "Petunia". She always had a smile on her face that lit up the room and added a extra sparkle to everyone's day with her infectious giggle. She will truly be missed.

-Love always,

“ I remember helping mom pick strawberries out of the field . It was a hot summer day . We filled many baskets . Of course we had to eat a few. We brought them home , she cleaned them and cooked them down . She made many jars of jam . It seemed like a lot of work , but it sure tasted good !

Miss you ,
Denny

“ I remember when mom got some zucchini from someone she worked with . She made zucchini bread . She wrapped the loafs in foil and put them in the freezer . She stacked them nice and neat . When you opened the freezer door, it looked like aluminum bricks stacked in rows. They were good eat'in .
