

Mr. Charles Shovine Beam II

August 17, 1956 - June 26, 2020

Charles S. (Chuck) Beam of Alpharetta, Ga., died on June 26 from complications following a stroke. He was born in Hamlet, N.C., on August 17, 1956, to Joseph David Beam Jr. and Nancy Covington Beam. As a child in a textile family, he spent his early years in North Carolina, Georgia, and Tennessee, moving to Clarksville, Va., in first grade. He graduated from Bluestone High School and earned a B.S. at East Tennessee State University in electrical engineering.

Chuck had a distinguished career in sales of software, hardware, and consulting services within the dramatically growing information technology industry in the Southeast. He enjoyed the outdoors, especially fishing and playing golf with his sons and his friends. Sometimes referred to as “Goodtime Charlie,” he will be remembered by his many friends for his fun-loving and upbeat personality.

Chuck will be remembered most for his love for his sons, Charles Jonathan Beam and Joseph Michael Beam of Duluth, Ga., who survive him. He was preceded in death by his parents and survived by his stepmother, Judith Ann Beam of Wilmington, N.C.; and his brothers, David (Elizabeth) of Raleigh, N.C., and George (Betsy) of Forest, Va. Arrangements are being made by Northside Chapel, Roswell, Ga, with services to be held on a future date. Memorials in honor of Chuck may be sent to the Mecklenburg County YMCA, 1567 Noblin Farm Road, Clarksville, Va. 23927 or the American Stroke Association, <https://stroke.org>.

“ So very sad to receive this news just today. I met Chuck years ago in the hi-tech industry. He was a consummate professional. Leader. Mentor. Motivator. I partnered with him and competed with him. He was a complete and utter gentleman in every single dealing I had with him. He shall be dearly missed. My condolences to his entire family.

“

George, David and Family,

We are terribly sorry to hear about Chuck. It's been close to 40 years since I last saw him.

We grew up together in Clarksville and spent our first 2 college years at Ferrum.

Chuck was a good friend. I wish we had connected later on in life. I had hoped to see him at the last H.S. reunion but he did not make it.

Comfort to everyone during this sad time.
