Comments

“ We remember when Doug learned to water ski behind a small aluminum boat with a 15 HP motor. He continued to work at it until he was able to get up on skis.

We remember the hospitality that he provided in his home when we came to visit him in the 2003 frame.

We remember him at our family reunion in 2008 and the road trip that we took after the reunion to Grand Coulee Dam, Mount Rainier National Park, and Mount St Helens National Volcanic Monument.

We remember him from the 2011 family reunion at his home. We remember the effort that put into picking up the sticks. We remember his hospitality.

We remember him from the 2013 family reunion in Roseburg, OR.

We appreciated it when he called my mother after she had a stroke in January 2018.

“ Doug was a great leader and had the rare quality of truly caring about his team and their lives, inside and outside of work. He helped me to grow as an engineer, as a manager, and most importantly in very difficult times outside of work. The world is a little dimmer today without Doug's infectious smile. Take care "Sunshine" - see you on the other side!

“ Doug was my boss for many years but, more important he was the friend in need, always very supportive of our life outside the work place.
For sure the angels are watching over him as heaven became a much better place when he arrived.
Thanks for the memories Doug!

“ I was very privileged to have worked for Doug. He was truly a great "people leader," and a genuinely regarded and respected individual. I personally owe much to Doug for allowing me a true work-life balance, affording me flexibility with my schedule to be an engineer for the company, while raising 5 children. And I know my sentiments regarding Doug are shared amongst others who were fortunate to work under Doug's leadership. May you rest in peace. Anna Saadatjoo

“ Oh, Bubba, too many memories to share here. I miss you so much. As soon as you found out what was wrong you wanted to try to go for treatment that hopefully would give you a couple of more years with your family. At the same time you started getting affairs in order to make it as easy on Sandy as possible. You were each other's best friend and soulmate. You and I, being siblings, didn't always agree but we still loved each other. Now what am going to do? I still love you bubba.
