“ Auntie Ellen was my much loved Godmother. She would tell me when I was much younger that I was her first baby. I spent alot of time with Ellen and Uncle Billy. They loved each other dearly and it's a memory I have always remembered. They stood next to each other in good times and in bad! My wish is that they will rejoin each other in heaven.

Ellen was one of the most humble, yet strongest woman I have ever known. She was the rock of her family and that never wavered. She faced her fair share of family and health struggles, yet her faith was strong and she approached all challenges with strength and an optimistic, committed attitude.

I spoke with Auntie Ellen only several times since January. Life gives us challenges and sometimes family members drift apart. She kept in touch when my mom was sick and passed away in February. She checked in on me after loosing my husband in 2019. She was loyal and good and I only wish I had seen her one more time. I only wish I had known how sick she was in the end. I pray she will have everlasting peace and love. I will miss her. Denise Oldfield
