

Mrs. Jo Ann Leder

January 19, 1950 - April 6, 2021

Jo Ann Leder, 71 of Marietta, Georgia, affectionately called Jo Jo by her grandchildren passed away peacefully at home surrounded by her family on Tuesday, April 6, 2021 after a short battle with cancer.

Jo Ann was born on January 19, 1950 in Brooklyn, New York. As a child growing up in Brooklyn, Jo Ann had fond memories of her time with her family, her violin playing, and her summers spent in Tannersville, New York where she could be found frequently visiting her grandparents souvenir store on Main Street.

At the young age of 21 Jo Ann married her husband Sam Leder, and they began their journey of life together. Leaving New York, they headed out west to California where Jo Ann took very seriously her life as caregiver to her husband and two daughters.

Eventually the family headed back east to Virginia and finally ended up in Georgia where Jo Ann was surrounded by her children and grandchildren.

Jo Ann was usually seen knitting a sweater, creating a beautiful cross stitch pattern, cooking a delicious meal, and always completing the daily crossword. Jo Ann loved listening to Frank Sinatra and watching old movies.

Jo Ann was always a caregiver. She raised her two daughters and made sure both her parents were taken care of until the end.

Jo Ann is preceded in death by her mother and father Bert and Bernice Bernstein. She is survived by her husband of almost 50 years Sam Leder, her daughter Jennifer Katz (husband Adam), her daughter Samantha Pressnall (husband Brian), her six grandchildren (Joshua, Benjamin, Elizabeth, Matthew, Tyler, and Gabriella). She is also survived by her twin sisters Ilene Davis and Marlene Hess.

To say you will be missed is an understatement. We know you will always look over all of us to make sure we live our best lives. Until we meet again.
