

Mrs. Patsy Kay Hargett Budrich

April 5, 1942 - July 12, 2019

Patsy Kay (Hargett) Budrich, age 77, of Roswell, GA, passed away on July 12, 2019, after a long battle with cancer. Patsy was born April 5, 1942 in Columbus, GA. She was oldest of 3 children, to her parents, father, Laney Hargett, and mother Alma Rozelle Hargett. After graduating from Columbus high school in 1960, Patsy attended nursing school and cosmetology before marrying and becoming loving and supportive military wife, always supporting her husband in all his endeavors near and far away, and through travel and relocations across the country from Georgia to Hawaii, and points in between. Maintaining relationships close to home and from afar, family and friends always had her to go to for comfort, conversation, or just a laugh. She was recognized by the Army for her service to not only her husband but support of the military at her husband's retirement spanning 26 years. She became a mother of 2 children, and was always there for all those who entered her home in Roswell, GA. Patsy was an avid sun worshiper with a romance novel and a Tab, or listening to music from Gladys Knight and the Pips to Andre Bocelli or watching a season of Thorn Birds, Shogun, or the all time favorite and classic, Somewhere in Time. She fought through a severe brain injury, as well as breast cancer, finding her strength in prayer, her love of life, many pets, and family and friends. She was preceded in death by her daughter, Kristy Kay Lawley. She is survived by her loving husband, Ret. Lt Colonel Dudley Budrich; son, Daniel Budrich and his wife, Nancy; three grandchildren, Austin Budrich, Kyle Budrich and Christopher Lawley; sister, Tina Wall; brother, Mickey Hargett and his wife, Suzie; aunt, Betty Crawford and nieces, nephews, and other loving relatives. Patsy will be remembered as a beautiful, loving and giving woman, sister, mother, grandma, and most loved wife. Graveside services will be held on Thursday, July 18, 2019 at 11:00am at Georgia National Cemetery.

“ Aunt Patsy you always made me feel so good. For as long as I remember, your words always lifted me up. When you told me I looked like Bo Derek, the little me inside believed you. I always wanted to be like you....your blonde hair, your positive attitude, your big heart, your Hawaiian wedding band, your handsome hubby, your love of Bocelli and Christopher Reeves. The thing I admired most about you though is how you always helped me and others see themselves in the best light.

“ Oh!! my sweet sister Patsy , I'm going to miss you so... seeing your name like this makes it so real. I'm so sorry you had to suffered so long .. you're with your baby Kristy now she's been waiting on you. I have to believe when you took your last breath you were facing God. . everyone loved you never a unkind word . you were so loving to my children growing up .. I will miss you saying is you "T" on the phone to me . when you were little you couldn't so say Tina so you called me "T".. I did have to do most of the chords around the house while you played make-up I was younger so I had to wait on you hand and foot mad then but no now .. I still loved you I would get to tag along with you in the car . best of times . WHO's going to be my Psychiatrist and my confidant now? poor aunt Suzie she;ll have the honors. you rest in peace and enjoy you new life I'll see you again .. my sweet sister Patsy I love you wish I had told you more often .
