

Mrs. Polly Anne Lubert

November 10, 1938 - July 26, 2020

Mrs. Polly Anne Lubert of Atlanta passed away peacefully and made her way to her heavenly home to be with her Lord and Savior on the 26th of July.

Polly was born in Munster, Pennsylvania in 1938 to Dwight and Pauline Stewart. She was a graduate of Cresson Joint High School in Cresson, Pennsylvania.

On December 29, 1956, she married David Lubert, the only love of her life. Polly was a world traveling Army wife, a homemaker, and earned her most precious title of “Mom” from her three daughters and son. She loved to sew, paint, read popular fiction, craft, and was always ready for a Target run. She stayed up to date on the latest fashion trends and had a keen eye for style. Polly loved animals, could grow anything, and always had the latest Nicholas Sparks novel. She answered most to Mom or Grandma and loved spending time with her family, especially at the beach.

She was met in heaven by her beloved husband, David Lubert, her parents, and her brother and sister-in-law, Dwight and Annetta Jean Stewart.

Polly is survived, loved and remembered by her children, Patricia (Steve), Michele (Carl), Mark (Charlotte) and Suzanne, her ten grandchildren, five great grandchildren, two nephews, two nieces, and her many cousins.

She will be laid to rest at Hillcrest Cemetery in Augusta, Georgia.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to The Cancer Research Institute (cancerresearch.org) if so desired.

Cemetery

---

Northside Chapel Crematory

12050 Crabapple Rd

Roswell, GA, 30075

Comments

---

“ My deepest sympathy to Polly's family. We played together when children when our parents visited each other. Sadly we lost track iwith each other as the years went by. I remember her as a sweet person. With my love and prayers.
Lois (Stewart) Gilbert

Lois Gilbert - July 31, 2020 at 08:31 AM

---

“ Such a beautiful soul. I sure am sorry to hear of her passing.

Carol patterson sweeney - July 29, 2020 at 10:42 PM

---

“ Peaceful White Lilies Basket was purchased for the family of Mrs. Polly Anne Lubert.

July 29, 2020 at 10:15 PM