“ Ruthie helped me find a job during the Great Recession. I still pass along pointers she gave us during her class at RUMC. She was one of a kind. A true angel when she lived here on earth.

“ The last of a breed who sincerely was called to help others...and then did it. Ruthie was generous in hand and heart. She leaves a legion of admirers and friends.

“ My condolences to Ruthie's family. Ruthie selfishly helped others, including myself, over the years. I was so happy when I was able to help return the favor and hire her for a project I was working on. May others continue to learn from her and give back.

“ I remember my acceptance to join Ruthie's List on yahoo groups, circa 1997. I found two great contract positions from her posting my resume on her list. My mother and sister also found great positions through Ruthie's List. I never met her in person, but know she had an unbelievable network of good people and great opportunities. She gave us hope in finding a job to support our families. Hope with dignity and respect - very thankful for that.

“ There truly is only one Ruthie! Ahead of her time, compassionate, and giving. If the value of one's life is how many people they touched and helped, Ruthie lived 1,000 lives. Her family, friends, The HR/talent community, and Atlanta will miss this amazing woman. Rest in peace, Ruthie.

“ I still have Ruthie emails saved in my box. Her incredible legacy of passing it forward will stand the test of time. She was a great encourager and connector for those seeking jobs and seeking candidates and ahead of her time for social recruiting. Thank you Ruthie

“ A beautiful heart with a matching smile who was a friend to us all. My image of Ruthie today is her walking on the streets of gold without pain... healed, loved, and at home with her Savior. #ohana (means family, family means nobody gets left behind..or forgotten)

“ Ruthie was truly an example of Christian values - she strove to help others even during times when she was in need of assistance. Heaven gained another angel.

Athena Jones - July 03, 2019 at 09:46 AM

“ Ruthie Powell was one of the first REAL HR/Recruiting networkers. She started Ruthies List as a way to list jobs free or low cost also had a great spot for HR and Recruiters to share resumes. Ruthie was the original LinkedIn for HR, plus her networking and how-to seminars were great. Always helpful, open, and creative. She was an Angel on earth and now has a permanent spot in Heaven. R.I.P. Ruthie.
