August 4, 1938 - December 9, 2019

Sandra Elaine (Leonard, née) Mathis, 81, of Roswell, GA, left her earthly home December 9, 2019, to be with our Lord, surrounded by her loving family.

Born August 4, 1938 to William and Mary Andrews Leonard, in Bradford Township, Pennsylvania, yet raised and loved by Maternal grandparents in Niagara Falls, NY.

Sandy went on to live in Iran, Louisiana and finally in Georgia where she spent the entirety of her remaining life serving God. She had a forty plus year ministry whereby she touched more lives than we can count and reveled in her work; starting House of Refuge Ministries and Sandy Mathis Ministries along with movements such as "You Are Going To Make It".

Sandy hosted a Spiritual-talk radio show where her guests ranged from local folks she may have influenced to world leaders. Sandy had a love for Israel as evidenced by her numerous treks to Jerusalem and her endless intercessor prayer hours poured .

When you think "grand" or with "flair" you think of Sandy. She had style and was sometimes bigger than the room she was in, along with a creative mind so powerful it was only surpassed by her love of God.

Sandy was predeceased by her husband, Travis A. Mathis in 2002, her parents, a sister and a brother. She is survived by her sons, Shawn (Jan Kevan) Mathis of Worthington OH, Scott (Lisa) Mathis of Brevard, NC, her step-daughters, Mary Ann (Woody) Dixon of Plano, TX, Jeanne Nix of Tyler, TX and her brother, Alan Leonard of San Francisco, Patricia Wright, eight grandchildren, eight great grandchildren and numerous "Spiritual" sons, daughters, sisters and brothers.

“ I met Sandy in the Mt Paran choir. I was in her bible study class for the choir and attended prayer meetings at her home. She was a great lady and loved the Lord. There is definite joy in heaven because of her arrival. She will be missed.

“ Can only imagine how much joy there was in Heaven to greet Sandy...her whole life was lived with this as her goal. We shared years of joyful praise and worship in the Mount Paran choir...her love and kindness, her faithful and quiet stewardship, is a blessing to remember. May the memory of all the lives she touched by her love of God and awesome personality be a comfort and inspiration to her family...sincerely,
