“ We are so terribly sorry to hear of Thom's passing. What a wonderful guy! Remembering the fun brunches with Janice & Bill at Thom & Lynda's before the UGA/ Tech games!! We'll never forget the time young Ryan decided to get in their car in the driveway, take it out of park, & roll across the street backwards into the neighbor's yard!! No one was hurt & we had Lynda's fantastic food, as usual! Our love to Lynda, Ryan & Tyler & the rest of the family.

“ Thom and Bard had been friends since almost forever. I was so fortunate to get to know Thom and Lynda through him. Bard's stories of escapades with Thom, Joe, and Bill were endless, or so I had hoped. I will most remember Thom's immediate smile when he saw me (or anyone, I'll bet), but even more, his wonderful laugh! You could not help but laugh also. He was the consummate gentleman and the world is a much sadder place without him to share it.

With all my sympathy to Lynda and all the family,

“ Thom Man was a sweet friend, who was intelligent, kind and trustworthy. He was a wonderful friend to so many people. He adored his wife, Lynda, and sons, Ryan and Tyler, and daughter in love, Lyndsey. Having 3 adorable grands was the cherry on top. He will be missed terribly. Praying God to give you comfort and peace. We're sending you big hugs and love. Their Christmas Party was the highlight of the yr. Thom will shine on in our hearts!
