

Mrs. Abigail Amato

October 20, 1976 - September 10, 2021

Abigail Amato, 44, went to be with her heavenly Father on Friday, September 10, 2021. She passed peacefully in her home surrounded by those who love her. Abigail was born in Miami, Florida, and spent most of her childhood in North Carolina. She attended and graduated from Berea College in Kentucky in 1998. After moving home to Charlotte, NC, Abi would meet her soulmate and husband, Alex Amato. Abi loved to travel and was eager to see and experience different cultures and parts of the United States. She and Alex's travels would take them to Seattle, Maui, Asheville, Greensboro, GA, Napa Valley, New York, West Virginia, back to Charlotte, Maryland, Paoli, PA and her final resting place Roswell, GA. Paoli was truly a special place for Abi. It was here she would rediscover her love for Christ our Savior and begin to raise her family.

Abigail was a devoted wife and mother who cared for and loved her family dearly. She was also an amazing friend to those that knew her, and she had a gift of touching people's lives in a very special way through her kind and giving nature.

Abi trusted and believed in God unconditionally and even while battling cancer for over 10 years never questioned her Maker. She was beyond brave and courageous in her fight against the disease. She was inspirational.

Abi is survived by her husband, Alex, son, Ethan, daughter, Emily, mother, Laurel McCoy (Jeff), father, Charles Alonso (Lajeana), brother, Joel Alonso (Melissa), brother, Michael Senger, Jr., sister, Elisabeth Mayo (Adam), sisters, Anneliese, Chariese, and Janiese Alonso, sister-in-law, Jennifer Machenheimer (Chuck), mother-in-law, Jean Amato, father-in-law, Nicholas Amato, Jr. (Diane), and her nieces and nephew.

A Memorial Service will be held at North Point Community Church on Tuesday, September 14, 2021, at 11am. In lieu of flowers a memorial fund in Abi's name has been set up at: <https://www.gofundme.com/f/abi-amato-memorial>
