

Mr. Adam Alexander Cooper

November 5, 1983 - March 6, 2015

Adam Cooper, age 31, lifelong resident of Roswell, GA, has gone to Heaven. He fought a long and courageous battle after sudden heart failure due to a cold in 2008. He was the first resident of Georgia to actually go home on an LVAD machine and was fortunate enough to be blessed with a heart transplant only 3 days later. He celebrated his last years and praised Jesus for his additional years. Adam had been deeply involved in music and entertainment all of his life and will be singing and playing for Jesus now. A Celebration of Life will be held at Crabapple First Baptist Church on Saturday, March 7, 2015, at 4 PM.

“ We met Adam at our daughter and son-in-law's wedding October, 2013. He was best man for Patrick Kelly who married our daughter Jenny. He was a nice young man who obviously enjoyed music. Our sympathy is extended to Adam's family. Richard and Connie Reed, Kingsport. Tennessee

We so want you to know that we have you all in our prayers and thoughts as you go through this journey of grief. We can feel your pain and just know that our Lord will give you the strength and peace you need each and every step of the way. John 14:27-28
