“ It's been 10 long years without you. I miss everything about you wish makes missing you so much harder. You will always be the man i'll strive to be. You were a lover, father, leader and everything a young man could ask for. I promise I won't let you down Dad... Ill continue to finish what you have started.

Aswan Bland - August 02, 2017 at 02:58 AM

“ Tomorrow marks 6 years I have missed having you as my friend my confidant my soulmate. I look back and remember the day Meolody introduced us in front of Better Crust Bakery and I decided then that you would be the father of my children. All the years we shared, all the friends we made, all the places we travelled are locked in my memory of love. I use to get upset at all the pictures you took and brought home for me to put in Albums. But what a treasure they are to me now.. you captured every personality.. It was your gift. I wish you were here to see the kids. Brittany has your gentle spirit and easy go lucky way about living her life. She is beautiful inside and out. Aswan has your looks, yes he's handsome and he knows it. Somehow he arranges things in the house just like you did...it freaks me out...They miss you so much. We know you are with us every day watching over us, keeping us safe. In my heart I know you were called home to be the Angel you are.. but as Mr. Bats would say " You loused me up MAN". Your wife, your friend, your soulmate. Dorlisa###imported-begin##Dorlisa Bland###imported-end##

“ People always ask the question, "If you could have dinner with anyone, alive or dead, who would it be?" These days, that person would be you. Since around the time you left us, I've watched Aswan grow up to become a noble, family-loving, incredible man with the biggest heart I know. He has been a blessing to my life in so many ways. I can't help but think that he's followed in the exact footsteps of his father. I don't think Aswan remembers a negative thought about you- you're his idol, his role model and his inspiration. Thank you for raising such an incredible son while you were here. Though I wish more than anything that you were here to see him grow up, I know that you're smiling down on him from Heaven. Even though we never even met, I love you and miss you very much.###imported-begin##Liana###imported-end##

“ I'm a bit late on this, but I just found this information on the internet. I am deeply saddened to hear of Al's passing. I worked with him for a year at Wolf Camera out in Alpharetta and he is one of the people I tried to keep in touch with. He loved his family and I will ever forget the way his eyes lit up when his wife walked into the store. Big Al was a good guy and will be greatly missed. “ I just found out today 12/13/07 from a mutual friend and I am very saddened by the loss of my friend Al. We photographed weddings together, worked together for a few years and had the same personality, and passion for photography. Most of all Al was a true friend. I will miss his laugh, his smile, and his outspoken love, and joy for life itself. “ When people die.. it has always been a question that I ask myself. “I wonder if he’s going to Heaven?” . When Al went home I knew! It’s not often that you meet someone who has the characteristics that Al so effortlessly portrayed, but it is less common to know someone that is all these things to you as well as everyone else who knew him. Al was my brother! The brother of my wife, who ironically shared the same birthday as me. He was funny , he was caring we was BIG Al. He did everything with good intentions and touched the hearts of many. I was weird to me sometimes how he remembered the names of people he had met years before for only a few moments. Everyone mattered to him. Everyone!! And he treated us all that way. “Al, you are GOD sent, To Him you have returned” You will be truly missed on earth but an Angels place is in heaven. Love You###imported-begin###Dwayne Roach###imported-end##

“ Big Al was a great guy. We are all going to miss his smiling face. I bought my first of many cameras from Big Al at the Roswell Wolf Camera a number of years ago. He was always my "go to" guy when it came to cameras or photography in general. He was more than just a Wolf employee to me. He was a friend. I remember the last time I saw him, when he dropped in at Wolf while I was there. We picked up right where we left off, having not seen each other in a while. This was not long before his illness. I will always have fond memories of Big Al. I was very pleased to meet his twin brother one day in Wolf. Dejavu all over again!

God bless.

“ What words can I say to describe the man with 2 faces and a HUGE HEART!!! I remember Al when I was a kid and I would always confuse him with his twin but then it hit me..one day I knew the difference. Al always had a SMILE on his face, a joke in his mouth and some love to share in his heart. He was one of the nicest people you'd ever meet and he would do ANYTHING to help someone in need. The photos he took spoke for him and themselves; with quality, love and pride!! He took a photo of my entire family at the block party a few years back..SOMEONE ANYONE I WANT THAT PIC!!! I say to his family TAKE COURAGE IN THE LORD!! Dorlisa, when he found you the bible says he found a GOOD THING!! I remember seeing you two together, visiting for Thanksgiving and the love shared. My dad says MIKE...BE STRONG, YOU GOT 2 ANGLES NOW!!

“ 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 Wherefore comfort one another with these words.##imported-begin##Michael A. Lee##imported-end##

“ On behalf of the Harlem community, please accept my deepest condolences to Dorlisa (my childhood friend of West 140 Street), children - Brittany and Aswan.

I became friends with Albert and his twin brother, Alfred in 1976. We were teenagers that played daily and ruled tennis in Harlem at Fred Samuel Park. In those early days, we were assured that we would become successful in everything pursued. Albert was the most profound among us. As a peer, he was a great cheer leader and certainly, he helped to inspire my career in politics, business and education. Strangely, my older brother, Curry became best friends with Albert and his wife, Dorlissa when they attended Pace University.

Great minds think alike. I will never forget my fond memories of Albert and his twin brother, Alfred, playing tennis in the hot Harlem sun and never, ever able to beat them at tennis. :)

“ Were he able I believe Albert would say to his family, both the Blands & the Meggett's:

" I'M FREE "

*Don't grieve for me, I'm Free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all,
I could not stay another day, to laugh, love, work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy.
A friend shared, a laugh, kiss or picture- Oh Yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much, good friends, good times a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all to brief, don't lengthen it now with undo grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me! God wants me now, He set me free.
With my deepest sympathy to all of Albert's family and dear friends.

Al brought out the best in us and he did his job WELL. I don’t know whose smile was bigger, AL’s or the person he was taking a picture of. Wow! MY BIG BROTHER, I say that proudly and lovingly, he was one of the best a girl could ask for. I had my very own super hero. AL has always come to my rescue, from the 2am parties with no way home to the crazy boyfriends and every special moment in my life, he’s been there and he will always be. God has called AL to be my Guardian Angel. Lord, I thank you for allowing Al to be a blessing to all of us. “God grant me SERENITY to accept the things I cannot change. COURAGE to change the things that I can, and the WISDOM to know the difference.”

Although you are in a better place and at peace. It hurts to know that we will no longer see your face at the family gatherings. And we will no longer see your smile behind a digital camera trying to get that perfect shot of the fam and friends.

Al, when your sister first introduced me to the fam, you guys accepted me with open arms. I can't help but to think about the first few thanksgivings spent here in ATL after moving from NY. As I look back, their are so many great memories of all of us back then. You guys truly became my family. And I love you all!!

Last time I got to see you was at one of Shay's cookouts. You were mentioning Maurice's smile. And That tripped you out to see that. We laughed about it for a long time. Because you never really seen him smile. That is what I remember Laughter and smiles. And it will never be forgotten

All of that to say..

I love you Al and you will truly be missed.

Your sis,

“ To Shay & Dwayne and the entire family of Albert Bland. We just got the news that Albert has gone on to be with the Lord. Know that, for who you've known him to be on earth he has gone before you to prepare an eternal home for you all. Work hard to know and to fulfill your purpose and calling on earth so when the Lord calls you to be with Him He will be well pleased as I am certain in my Spirit He is with Albert. I've only met Albert once (at your wedding) and that will be the memory I will hold on to even until we meet again.

God bless you all. Have hope and most of all have peace.

“ My name is Anita and these words were given by my mother, Henrietta Edwards.

I was a friend of Albert's mother for many years. We lived in the same building and It was a pleasure to watch both Albert, Alfred and their siblings grow up. Albert has done his job very well on this earth, and it was time for the Lord to call him home. He is at peace. I will always remember his smile and graciousness when he saw me in the building where I live in New York. Blessings to the family. I love you all.##imported-begin##Henrietta Edwards##imported-end##

“ May God's warm embrace, unflinching love and promise of eternal life at His side, comfort the family at this time of sorrow. I am now 38 but remember Albert from the time I was 7. His mother was my babysitter and his family was like my own. Everytime I spoke to him he was kind, patient and comical, regardless of what was going on in his life. On this earth we are all just passing through as we journey on our way home to the Lord. Albert, I am grateful that our paths have crossed. God keep you.##imported-begin##Eric C. “ Dear Albert,

I remember when you and your twin brother, Alfred were born, and saw you grow up to become fine adults...Albert was a wonderful father, husband and respected young man..And God said, "WELL DONE MY SON". "I'M LETTING YOU INTO MY KINGDON'.

I trust the Lord with all my heart; leaning not on my own understanding as to why you left so soon. My dear sister Connie and family, my love and prayers are with you. To Albert's lovely children, always remember your father as a truly loving and gifted man.

“ My brother, my brother, my brother, you know that we all loved you but, God loved you best. I vividly remember, the day you guys came home from the hospital in January 1962 and I held my twin brothers in my arms at the age of 12 as I sat in awe. You have been a loved baby brother, my son, my friend who had become an unmeasurable husband and proud father. Your laughter, your jokes and many funny faces will be missed. And now, God has you in His arms, no more pain, tears, worries, turmoil nor challenges. I find comfort in thinking that Ma and Robert Lee were standing at the gate waiting to embrace you and saying well done, my son. Your spirit will always be with me, with all of us. “ The Bland family Sympathy, love, and mostly blessings to you. My heart goes out to all of you. I knew Albert for more than twenty years and had nothing but love and respect for him. Unfortunatley I havent seen him in more than three years. He and his lovely wife Dolisa(someone that I have nothing but respect for also) was on Amsterdam avenue and sixty first street. His skin was glowing and he had lost about fifteen pounds and was he boasting about it. Three years or more so, he had past away. Albert I am sorry for you but now you are somewhere where you are in no pain or feeling no misery. Again sympathy to the family and I love you much Al!##imported-begin##Wilson Ford##imported-end##

“ My husband, Robert, & I were building out a new store in Jan, 2002, and Al dropped by. He asked if he could help with laying the slate floor, and stayed an ENTIRE WEEK until it was finished! And then he continued to help until we were all done moving stuff in and open for business. That is the essence of Albert Bland - loving, caring & unselfish.

Al always invested time in others. I know Al is in heaven right now, and its not because of his good works, but those were a result of how he wanted to live his life for the Lord. Scripture says that we are saved not by our works, but by faith in Christ Jesus. Al knew he was born a sinner & was separated from God, so he accepted God's free gift of sending His son, Jesus Christ, to die for our sins, promising all who believe in Him, will not die but have eternal life. I know I will see Al in heaven, & I pray that all who knew him and loved him will also be there for that wonderful & sweet reunion with Al and our Savior.##imported-begin##Debbie Santoyo##imported-end##
