Alexander J. Cook (Alex)

June 6, 1981 – September 26, 2021

After fighting an incredibly hard battle, Alex succumbed to COVID at the young age of 40. Alex was the epitome of all that is warmth, love, tenderness and caring. He had the most contagious smile and never met a stranger. He was also an incredible man of faith and he knew that Jesus was the way, the truth and the light.

Alex graduated from Chattahoochee High School in 2000. Alex owned and operated his own successful pressure washing, roof and deck cleaning business. He was a member of Mountain Lake Church, now known as Local Church. His greatest joy was spending time with his family. He loved outings with his wife, Christina and his step-daughter, Aubrey. He also enjoyed helping others and serving in his community.

Alex was preceded in death by his grandparents, Luther and Annie Lou Cook, Thomas and Velma Eades. Alex is survived by his wife, Christina; step-daughter, Aubrey; his mother, Kay Born (step-father Nick); his father, Bob Cook (step-mother Rita Mandell); sister, Emily Harrison (husband Paul, nieces, Eleanor and Ruby); brother, Corbin (wife, Michelle, nephew, Thomas and niece Josie); step-brother, Daniel Mandell (nephew, Dylan); step-sister, Dawn Welch (husband, Jack, nephews, Ryan, Chance and Evan Welch, niece, Julia Chance); step-brother, Raymond Born; sister-in-laws, Nevajane Tuggle (husband, Gene Tuggle, nephew, Kaleb, niece, Faith), Natalya Frankel (husband, Neil Frankel, niece, Lexi, nephew, Dylan), Noelia Cadle (partner, Josh Keahey, nephew, Alan, niece, Kalie, nephew, Craig); brother-in-law, David.
