

Amar Singh

October 10, 1911 - June 11, 2007

Regal, determined and inspiring - this was Amar Singh.

Born in 1911, a farmer's son, his determination and hard work lead him from Lahore to a distinguished career with the United Nations. He embraced the cultures of the world from Delhi to Shanghai to Bangkok and finally to Atlanta, his adopted home. In his white turban and crisp white shirt he stood tall. After retiring, he enjoyed spending time with his family, connecting with friends far and near, and remained active by taking long walks, practicing yoga every morning, and always being up to speed on his favorite pastime - politics. He was happily married to Jasbir Kaur for more than 50 years until her death in 1992. He is survived by his daughter Jogi Singh, Kuki Bakshi and Pammi Type; grandchildren Natasha Singh, Eric Singh, Bobby Bakshi and Sherri Bakshi; and great-granddaughter, Sapna and Sanjana Bakshi. He will always be remembered.

“ Dear Jogi, Eric, and Tasha:

I have been praying for you from the minute I heard about Mr. Singh not doing so well. I've asked God to help you through this difficult time in your life, to give you the inner strength to help sustain you now and later, to give you inner peace, knowing you've done all you could, and to lift your spirits to help you get through this. Take each day one at a time, Time helps us to heal. I know Mr. Singh left fond memories in your heart you can carry with you and smile about. My heart goes out to you and my love to you all and your family. Sincerely, Kim##imported-begin##Kim Zackery with Comfort Keepers##imported-end##
