“ I met Ana back when she first started working as a Phlebotomist at Northside Hospital. We became friends after we found out we lived a couple miles from one another in Roswell! We would often go to lunch, or get coffee together.

I will always remember how badly she wanted to be a Mother and once she had her kids, how much she adored them!

When she found out she was pregnant with her first son, she was very emotional about telling family. She came to my apartment and was teary eyed. My cat, Mopar, jumped right on her lap and stared up at her...She and I both laughed at that!

She and Edwin worked so hard to provide for their kids! And I always was impressed that she continued on finishing college despite having kids and working!

I moved to Ohio after my divorce and Ana was one of the last people I saw before I moved. I will cherish my last memory of her, having lunch together at Olive Garden and then getting to see her new house!

I love you Ana! Enjoy Heaven!
