“ Dear Sarah Ann,

I am so sorry to hear about Andrew.

I was friends with Andrew in Highschool and I was going through my yearbooks recently. I googled Andrew Harris Goldberg and through ancestry was looking and it eventually gave me the sad news. I knew him as Andy Goldberg in South Florida.

I met him when we were in Highschool (Nova University School: Class of 1986). We all went our separate ways after graduation, but I will never forget him. We had some great times together. His nickname in school was "Critter" and mine was "Pedro". He made highschool fun and crazy. I know that you know that he touched so many lives.

He had a heart of gold. Peace be with you. Peter G.

“ Dear Sarah Ann,

I only knew Andy for a few months, but thought the world of him. I met Andy in a networking group in Canton this summer. He always had a creative presentation that usually go the whole group laughing and everyone liked him.

I wanted to attend the funeral, but had family in town. I am so very sorry for your loss. Please don't hesitate to call or write if you need anything.

God bless you and your family,

Michael Buzzi

“ Sara Anne, Our hearts are so saddened over the lost of your husband. We never had the pleasure of meeting Andy but I heard via daughter Cherice that you were so happy and had a special bond with his daughters. Our prayers and thoughts are with you dear one. Let God carry you through this. Hope to see you and give you a hug soon. With Our Love, Charlie and Brenda Tootle###imported-begin##Charlie and Brenda Tootle###imported-end##

“ Dear SAM,
God richly blesses us with wonderful people like Andy and you. I thank Him for the joyous memories I have of Andy's phone calls and visits. Andy brought happiness to so many people that I will honor his memory by trying to do something special for others. May God bless you and your family with peace and strength.

“ Dear Sarah Anne,

I did not know your late husband. I am deeply moved by his passing. It is a great mystery to us why he was taken at such an early time in your lives. God may have felt that he has a special soul and like the beautiful flower in the garden picked first. May I humbly pray with you that you and your family are comforted among all mourners in Zion. May we live to see Messiah and be re-united with our departed loved ones upon the resurrection.

With kind regards,
