“ I am saddened by the passing of Angelo. For a month, this past January, he and I were roommates at a rehab facility. I quickly learned that Angelo was a terrific human being: generous of spirit, optimistic even in the face of adversity, possessing a great sense of humor, and, despite his age, youthful in attitude. He got me hooked on cannoli from Alpine, and, in the future when I eat one, I will remember Angelo fondly. My condolences to the entire, multi-generational, D'Allesio family. John Myer

“ I will miss talking to Angelo on walks with our family dogs. We would chat about what we were up to, neighbors, family, and I'd just like to hear what Angelo was up to since he was about my Dad's age & they both loved golf & time with their friends. Not to mention family, I knew Angelo was a proud Father & Grandfather & I just learned Great - Grandfather. There are a few of us original owners still in the neighborhood & we will miss Angelo. Rest in Peace dear neighbor. Lynn Thomas & family
