“ Ann Marie was a beautiful soul that always had a smile on her face when I saw her. Every morning opening with her was a absolute delight. She would always prank me in the morning when ever I went back to visit her in the vault office. I will miss sitting back there and just catching up with her. She will be missed but not forgotten.

“ I can't remember not knowing Ann Marie. When we heard of her passing, some of began texting about the memories we had of her. Those of us that were fortunate to see her doing her job in the background at Home Depot, loved talking to her for those few minutes a day. Some of those few minutes extended to more than a few with her allowing us to talk about our lives and then in turn hearing about hers. She always had a sympathetic ear and I loved hearing about the love she had for her family. She adored her nieces and nephews and would talk of them often. You could count on her speaking her mind but would then turn around and make you laugh. This kind and generous woman will be missed at Merchants Walk Home Depot.

“ Ann Marie was always a sweet woman in the 13 years that I worked with her. I always looked forward to our 15 minute vent sessions every morning. She was always very compassionate, and genuine. I always looked forward to the monthly cookies she would bring me for my three children. She was a kind soul and I will deeply miss the laughs and conversations. You always knew that it was going to be a smooth morning when Ann Marie was in and I will forever be great full for having the opportunity to know her.
