

Mrs. Anne Sitton Coleman

September 25, 1926 - November 18, 2019

Anne Coleman of Roswell passed away Monday, November 18, 2019 at her home in Historic Roswell Place. She was born in Jackson, Georgia in 1926 but lived her adult life in Roswell. Her passion was American country antiques and she opened the first antique shop in Roswell in the '60s. She loved finding bargains at auctions and garage sales and was known for her decorating expertise. She was on a bowling league until age 85 and earned several trophies. She maintained her charm and keen sense of humor into her 90s and will be greatly missed. She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law Hal and Lynn Coleman of Roswell, her daughter Kim of St Petersburg, Florida, four grandchildren and three great grandchildren. A celebration service will be held at Northside Chapel in Roswell on Wednesday, November 20, 2019 at 12:00PM. Visitation will precede the service at 11:00 AM. In lieu of flowers the family requests donations be made to Homestead Hospice.

“ *Dear Coleman Family,
We were so sad to hear of Anne's passing.Heaven has gained an angel!
She was a a favorite neighbor of ours growing up on Wavetree dr.
We were blessed to spend time with her recently on her birthday. Please know that our thoughts
and prayers are with you at this most difficult time.
Love,
Dave and Claire(Gaissert) Hallman*
