“ *Dear Ken,
Lois and I were shocked and saddened to learn of Arlene's passing. Memories of good times we enjoyed together as couples while at Siemens come flooding back. We know that you will have the full support of your loving family during these trying times. Please accept our most heart felt condolences. Sincerely, John and Lois.##imported-begin##John and Lois Hettich##imported-end##*

“ Dear Ken:
I am so very sorry for your loss. I always read the obituaries in the AJC and was very surprised and saddened to see Arlene's name. Ken, please know that we at SE&A are thinking about you and if there is anything we can do, please let us know. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. With our most sincere sympathy,
Helga and Terry Dodd (my new husband since March 2006)##imported-begin##Helga Dodd - formerly Riethmaier##imported-end##

“ Please know that so many people share your grief with you to help you through this time of sorrow.

We know that when the enemy death strikes grief can be very painful or it can come as relief from suffering if our loved ones were at that state. In any event we love and will miss them dearly.

The Bible acknowledges the bitter sorrow that a person can feel at the lost of their loved one. Even when Jesus friend Lazarus died the Bible states that "Jesus groaned in the spirit and became troubled" and shortly after that "he gave way to tears". (John11:33,35)

Please accept my deepest sympathy as we await the time when Jesus Christ will awaken all of those who have fallen asleep in death.##imported-begin##Dana Richmond##imported-end##
