“ Dear Mr. and Mrs. Martin I wanted to tell you that I share your loss as my son, Brandon, lost his life that day as well. I introduced myself to you on Thursday at the funeral home as friends coming from Ellijay. We have so much to talk about. We, just today had a service for Brandon in Florida. Please feel free to email me anytime. My sympathy from my family to yours--Cheri Julin (Kaplan)##imported-begin##Cheri Julin (Kaplan)##imported-end##

“ Lucy,

My heart goes out to you and all of your family. This was such shocking news for me to hear. I pray that you and your family will become closer and stronger through this time. I know the love we experience for our children. Let that be your guiding light moving forward. Please know you are in my heart. My deepest, deepest sympathies.

Much Love,

“ On behalf of Richard, Jamie, Robert and Jeanette I would like to say I am so very sorry for your loss. I have told you before if there is anything we could do for you all you have to do is call. We will always be available to talk or to listen. We care about both of you. Take the time to care for each other. Someone once told me that when we are born we have only so many days before our mission here is complete. Ashley was a gift to you and her mission was completed sooner than expected. Let her memory live in your heart. And grieve as long as you need to. But live for you and her.

Yours in friendship

“ My condolences to you, Mr. & Mrs. Martin. I knew Ashley for only a few short months, yet she was vivid light that touched the hearts of us all. On the gloomiest day, she made everyone smile by her jokes or pranks. She brought a smile to me each day we worked together. I will miss her dearly, however I will never forget her. It will be difficult to return to work without you there Ash-a-ley!! (: God makes NO mistakes. Your homegoing is according to his plan, as well as an important reminder to us all that tomorrow is promised to no one, so we must live each day as our last. We love you!!! Always.

“ It is so hard to think that Ashley is gone. I sit at work just waiting for her to walk in and say this is all a joke and hear her chuckle... she was always the little prakster! Ashley was such a wonderful person and friend. It is so hard not having her at work but I know that God has a different plan for her and I know that she is looking down on all of us. To Mr. and Mrs. Martin, please know that Ashley thought the world of you two and always said that she had the world's best parents. She loved you both so very very much and I hope you know just how much she loved you. May God comfort you in your time of mourning.##imported-begin##Michelle "Shell Bell" Robison##imported-end##

“ Ashley,

I still do not know what to say..

I never saw you with a frown on your face. You always knew what to say to make me smile. I only hope that I can one day have the strength and ability to stand on my own like you did. You were a hard worker, and deserved every bit of happiness you got.

You are such a dear friend, and you will truly be missed by so many people. Don't ever stop smiling!

I love you!##imported-begin##Rachel L. Krob##imported-end##

“ Ashley will be missed greatly, she always had a smile upon her face and a kind or funny thing to say to you as she pased by your desk. She was too young for this to happen to her. I guess God had other plans for her. He must have a big deal going on upstairs and really needed her help. My heart goes out to the family and I pray that time will heal their emptiness.
