“ Bea was our favorite E-Mail pal. They were often inspiring and thoughtful, other times reverent and caring. And then there were times when they were whimsical or devilish or just outright funny. They were never sad although they could make you cry. They touched you in your heart and in your funny bone at the same time.

We will miss her but never ever forget her generosity and love.

“ Bea was like a second mother to me. She didn't have a daughter and Henry and I were so alone in a new city. We would sit and talk and sometimes have a few cocktails! I always tried to bring her flowers on occasions and she really made them take off! I will miss her with all my heart. She always worried about me when I was traveling and was just a sweet, gentle soul that I will always remember.
