

Mr. Austin Wyatt Krider

May 7, 1990 - September 30, 2015

Austin Wyatt Krider, age 25, died Wednesday, September 30, 2015 in Dana Point, CA. He was born in Texas on May 7, 1990 to Susan Simpson and Jeff Krider. He grew up in Texas, Pennsylvania, and Georgia. He attended Alpharetta High School. He loved the freedom and thrill of riding his motorcycle, was an avid body builder and gamer, best buddy to his furry best buddies Kid and Buddy, and a fun and loyal friend to many. Most recently, he was the founder and proud owner of Brain Meets Brawn Junk Removal and Moving Company of Orange County, CA. He found his calling in helping provide people ease when moving their residence; their hugs at the end of a job well done meant the world to him.

He is survived by his loving mother and father, Susan Simpson and Jeff Krider, and adoring step-mother, Monica Krider as well as his loving siblings Jennifer, Ashleigh, Kevin and loving step-siblings Elizabeth and Nathaniel, his grandparents Robert and Patricia Simpson and Jane Krider, his girlfriend Berkeley Bellville, and will be missed by many others in the Simpson and Krider families. He is preceded in death by his grandfather Paul Krider.

“ I wanted to share my condolences to Austin's family and friends. I know that he was greatly loved by his Aunt Kathy from the interactions I had with her and I can not begin to understand the pain this family is going through. I can however understand the depth of love and loss. My hope is that the family can find a light to light their path during these dark times as they transition from their grief and loss. My prayers and warmest wishes to everyone who loved Austin. May the light he showed the world never dim, but always shine brightly in the lives of those he touched.
