

Barbara Chap

September 18, 1947 - November 27, 2012

Barbara Jean Chap, age 65, of Alpharetta, GA, passed away on November 27, 2012.

A graduate of Valparaiso University, Barb went on to earn her Masters Degree in Guidance

Counselling from Northern Illinois University. She was a French teacher and guidance counselor at Hadley Junior High in Glen Ellyn, IL. After her marriage to Terry in 1980, they eventually relocated to Connecticut, and then to Alpharetta, GA, where she held numerous positions in sales and marketing with Digital Equipment, Compaq and Hewlett-Packard. Returning to her love of teaching, she became an instructor for English for Internationals, where she helped business professionals and students improve their English language skills. Her love of animals was well known among her family and friends, as was her deep commitment to volunteerism with such organizations as Best Friends and Creative Therapy. Barb is survived by her loving husband Terry, mother Lois Kretz, brother Bob Kretz and numerous family members. She was loved by all who met her and will be truly and forever missed.
