“ So sorry to learn of Barbara passing. I remember her playing basketball. She was such a vivacious girl, so pretty and active.

We were so glad to see Barbara and Frank at our picnic in Thrasher Park year before last. She was also a big hit at our 50th class reunion, dressed in the 50's style. She was a lovely girl in school and a lovely lady. My sincere condolences to all her family.

Barbara became my cousin when she married my cousin "Frankie" Ellis 36 years ago. I will light up a bright yellow candle because she truly lit up our lives. Life will not be as bright without her.
