“ My Bro so many memories. From mini-bikes and motorcycles at old North Roswell Elementary to the "Pumphouse" days, camping at lake Marlo, a ton of fishing while mostly wishing they would bite. Always blowing that Breaker at your place everytime you lit up that ole Marshall Amp with your Les Paul. Your calm, kindness and honesty never wavered, a true gift to all who know you or are blessed to even just share some time. Those "ole bones" and the trials and pains in this Life are at peace now. Thank you for who you are as I'm so blessed to know you as my Friend.

“ Long time friend and neighbor of the Webbs, they lived several houses down from us on Alpine Dr in Roswell. Barry helped me build my house years later. I was a sponsor of the band they put together known as Crossrose. I always considered him a nice guy, never recall him saying anything mean about anyone. I'm adding a picture of him from their album cover. Condolences to all the family and friends.
