“ Mom, Today five years ago we started on a journey. You told me not to cry, because from the day that we are born we begin to die and every hair on our head is counted. I miss you dearly. “ Mom, today is August 14th, there is not a day that goes by that I don't think about you. I miss you dearly. It has been almost three years that you have been gone. I know that there is no suffering in heaven. You can see and there's no pain. Three years ago tomorrow is when we started on that roller coaster and found out how sick you were. But Mom, when you told me not to cry...that from the day that we are born, we begin to die, and every hair on our head is counted. It gives me peace to know that you were so at peace. Again, I miss you.

Love,
