

Betty Ray

February 25, 1923 - November 22, 2008

RAY – Ms. Elizabeth “Betty” White Ray, age 85 of Marietta, died November 22, 2008. Survivors include her son Michael Ray of Marietta; daughter Mildred R. Abernathy of Villa Rica; grandchildren Alex Ray and Cindi Chrismer of Marietta and Phillip Abernathy and Pamela Nail of Douglasville; seven great-grandchildren also survive. “Maw-Maw” was the picture of a true lady; she enjoyed time at her home in Blue Ridge, and cherished countless memories of her family that she was so proud of. She was blessed to have a son and two grandchildren who loved and cared for her until her death. Graveside services will be on Wednesday November 26, 2008 at 1PM from Westview Cemetery, where she will be laid to rest beside the love of her life, Silas Ray. The family would like to extend gratitude to the staff of Metropolitan Hospice for the special care and the friendships formed during her stay there. In lieu of flowers, contributions should be made to Metropolitan Hospice in her memory. Northside Chapel Funeral Directors and Crematory, Roswell/Alpharetta, is assisting the Ray family. www.northsidechapel.com 770-645-1414.

“ Mike,

I was so sad to learn about your Mom. I liked her a lot and always enjoyed the times she came by the office or we chatted on the phone. I'll always remember that kitten!

I know you will miss her terribly and I'm very sorry for your loss.

Hold on to all your happy memories.

My deepest sympathy to you and your family,
