“ Just devastated to learn only today that Bev has left us to go on dancing in the clouds and making the angels laugh. She came to work in my flower shop in Roswell and charmed everyone with such light and sparkle! We chatted in early June about my plans for a champagne tasting room in Savannah and of course she offered to help me with the flowers. Such plans we made!

Steve and family - We are so very sorry for your loss and will treasure the magic of Bev's friendship. Thank you for sharing her with us. Gregg & Daphne Lord

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Bev was always happy, so much fun to be with. I missed her when she moved from Buffalo, but never forgot her. We met when we planned a hula dancer for Steve's birthday at Z & W Foods where me and Steve worked. A special friendship developed. I even helped out at her flower shop during busy holiday times.

“ To say the loss of this beautiful, exceptionally creative woman is devastating; is a colossal understatement. Her laughter, was indeed, infectious and as her niece, I can conjure it like birdsong.

May our memories sustain our broken hearts. I will miss our belt-out singing in the car and our impromptu, usually vacuum-in-hand dance parties; especially to David Bowie, The Eurythmics, Depeche Mode and The Rolling Stones. Forever my Auntie B.

I met Beverly for the first time in Alpharetta in May of 2014 when I was moving from Florida to South Carolina. Steve is my cousin and we had not connected since we were young children during summer visits with the Depew family. His dad was the brother of my mother. The visits were a highlight of my summers during my younger years. We lost touch over the years. I was so blessed to be able to visit during a few occasions in recent years. I had great conversations on Bev and Steve and meeting their children. Sitting in their living room felt like home and it was awesome to connect with family.
