Beverly D. Winters – November 9, 1933 - May 31, 2019

Beverly D. Winters, age 85 of Roswell, GA (formerly Plainfield, IL) passed away unexpectedly Friday May 31, 2019. She was preceded in death by her husband of 61 years, John D. Winters, Jr. and her parents Loren and Dorothea (Gustafson) Dillingham. She is survived by her daughter Linda (John) Wirtz; son James (Mary) Winters, and grandchildren Michael, David, Matthew (Leah), and Douglas Wirtz and Lauren (Adam Demaree, fiancé), Kathryn, and Julia Winters.

Beverly “Bev” was born in Crown Point, IN and spent her childhood growing up in Porter County, IN. She graduated from Valparaiso (IN) High School and earned a degree in Home Economics from Purdue University where she met John. After college and moving to Ohio with her husband, Bev worked with the gas company in their appliance test kitchen. A transfer landed them in the Chicago area where she raised her children and returned to work in education assisting in middle school home economics classes and eventually working as a pharmacy technician.

In college, Bev became a member of Delta Gamma Sorority and was active with the Chicago area alumni group for almost 50 years serving in leadership positions, fund raising for the blind, and attending several national conventions as a group delegate. She also served as an election judge for over 20 years.

Throughout life, Bev enjoyed reading, solving puzzles and crafts. She donated much of her time in her later life crocheting items such as hats and scarves for children in need and afghans for rehab patients. In addition, she loved following Purdue football and basketball.

Cremation rites to be accorded. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to the Delta Gamma Foundation "Service for Sight" that assists the visually impaired or the charity of your choice.
