

Mr. Billy Gene Holcombe

November 26, 1931 - March 26, 2017

HOLCOMBE – Billy Gene Holcombe age 85 of Milton County passed away March 26, 2017. He was born on November 26, 1931 in Milton County to William and Alice Holcombe. He proudly served in the US Marine Corp. He had a long working career that included Bates and Woods Supermarket, Lockheed Martin, General Motors and finally retiring after 25 years with Piedmont Hospital. His great interest in genealogy led him to seek membership in the Sons of the American Revolution; becoming a member of the Piedmont Chapter. He was always very passionate about gardening, and after retiring from Piedmont, he immersed himself in his passion. He is best known for his great skill in growing tomatoes. He was an avid outdoorsman who enjoyed hunting and fishing. He was a longtime member of Bethany Baptist Church. He is survived by his wife, Barbara Bedingfield Holcombe; children, Rebecca Kent of Cumming, Wanda Holcombe of Fayetteville, Jerry Holcombe (Nila) of Lake Oswego, OR; 9 grandchildren; 5 great-grandchildren; siblings, Charles Holcombe of Alpharetta, Bobby Holcombe (Betty Sue) of Milledgeville, Martha Wise of Plains, Betty Ferguson of Cumming, Barbara Sanders of Lake City, FL., Dianne Tidwell (Bob) of Cumming, Roger Holcombe (Mildred) of Cumming; along with numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins. He will also be remembered by many happy customers from his garden stand. Funeral services will be held on Friday, March 31, 2017 at 10:00am in the funeral home chapel. Interment will follow at Georgia National Cemetery. The Holcombe family will receive friends on Thursday, March 30, 2017 from 3-8pm at Northside Chapel Funeral Directors.

“ I was saddened this morning to read of Billy's death . I convey my sincere condolences to his wife, Barbara, and to his children. Although I only met with Billy twice, I was charmed by his lovely smile and his expertise with business matters . I wish I'd known him longer . . . and had heard him relate all of his wonderful stories about growing up in these parts ; I'm absolutely certain he was a terrific story-teller .
