“ Bobby and Sue where some of my favorite memories of being a teenager in MYF at St. Andrews. Bobby was always available to listen and lend a hand or a joke. He was always so kind to me. (Sue and Bobby both were). And that angry young man-in-me was always given a safe place to be himself and I was always given such open-hearted advice. The world was a better place because of you Bobby. Sending love to all-B. Stewart

“ Bobby you will be surely missed by many. My parents Tom and Bessie Thornton loved you and Sue so much. You all had a strong friendship for years that I will always remember and cherish. I know they were both in the welcoming committee up in heaven and he will be in good hands! I will pray for Sue and the rest of the family as you journey through life without him. Prayers that your fond memories will bring you comfort. Sincerely, Thor and Deborah Goricki (Debbie Thornton)
