

Mr. Brandon Vassil

January 30, 1993 - May 30, 2018

Brandon was born in Atlanta on January 30, 1993 and was the son of Tim Vassil and Donna Fink Vassil and the brother of Matthew Vassil. He was the grandson of Victor Vassil and Jerry Vassil (deceased) and Bob and Mary Fink of Atlanta. He graduated from Milton High School and attended college in Boulder, Colorado. He died on May 30, 2018.

Brandon was born with a quest for adventure, independence and inquisitiveness. The question “Where’s Brandon?” followed him from the time he began to walk throughout his entire life. His adventures brought him to the mountains and lakes of Colorado, Georgia, North Carolina and Utah, the beaches of South Carolina and Gramps’ Place, Portland and the coast of Maine, the ocean and rain forests of Costa Rica, the Virgin Islands, France and Italy. Not one to follow a straight and narrow path, on all of his adventures, he sought out unique, and yes sometimes risky, experiences. He loved exploring, jet skiing, snowboarding, fishing, playing with his dogs and more recently golf. He was a fearless and natural athlete who excelled at football, baseball and lacrosse. He loved watching college and professional football and saw Georgia win the SEC Championship at the Dome and many Falcon games over the years with his Gramps.

Brandon loved music, especially the Grateful Dead and concerts at Red Rocks, and would travel the country to hear a favorite band or attend a music festival. He loved to share his passion of music with family and friends. Over the years, he’d enthusiastically bring his mom to concerts he thought she’d enjoy and make playlists for her exposing her to bands, musicians and songs that she otherwise never would have known.

Something about Brandon drew others to him. Once Brandon became your friend, you had a lifelong and loyal friend. As a result, he has a large group of close and loving friends spanning from his childhood to adulthood. The loves of his life though were his constant companions, dogs Bubba, Koda and Samson. They saw him through all of the highs and lows of his life.

Brandon loved his father who shared in his love for Bubba, Koda and Samson. He loved his Momma, "Big Girl," who was always there for him with her unconditional love and support. He loved his big brother Matt who he always looked up to and was so proud of. He loved his Fink and Vassil family of grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins with whom he shared so many adventures and memories over the years.

Brandon you were loved and will be missed by so many.
