

Brian Sturgis

September 20, 1980 - December 1, 2006

STURGIS - Brian Sturgis, born on September 20, 1980, died December 1, 2006, lost in an automobile accident. Our family is diminished by one, and infinitely. There are no words for the suffering we endure in his loss. Brian's life was short but full, one of joy and the love of blessed friends, deeply intertwined with the lives of his family. He is tearfully survived by his parents, Jeff and Candy, his younger sister Caroline (Cara) and brother Tyler, all of Alpharetta, aunts, uncles and cousins, numerous and grief stricken. We wish to celebrate Brian's life with a Memorial Service at 2:00 PM, Monday, December 4, 2006 at the Alpharetta First United Methodist Church, 69 North Main Street, Alpharetta, GA. Flowers will be accepted, but those who desire may make contributions to the University of Georgia Athletic Department, P. O. Box 1472, Athens, Georgia 30602. The family will receive friends on Sunday from 2 until 5 PM at the residence at 920 Freemanwood Lane, Alpharetta, 30004. Northside Chapel Funeral Directors and Crematory, Roswell/Alpharetta, 770-645-1414.

“ *Dear Sturgis Family,
I, along with the rest of my past classmates, will be missing Brian from the bottom of my heart. I had the pleasure of knowing him throughout my middle school, high school, and college years at UGA. Brian made a real difference in my life in college as a steadfast and caring friend. We exchanged many fond memories that I will forever cherish. His passing was most certainly a blow to me and so many others. Brian will remain as he was in my heart for ever and ever. My thoughts are with you all, as are my deepest sympathies. Brian is as loved as he was loving.##imported-begin##Stefani Chapman##imported-end##*

“ *Dear Sturgis Family,
I was shocked and saddened to hear about Brian. Brian was a wonderful person and will be missed by all those that had the chance to meet him. I look back on so many wonderful memories but are drawn mostly to the great times we had as youngsters playing ball at Wills Park. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
Sincerely,
Chris Sedgwick##imported-begin##Chris Sedgwick##imported-end##*

“ Dear Sturgis family (and friends),
As many before us, we were also classmates of Brian's and are deeply saddened by his passing. Brian was a wonderful friend and classmate, he will be missed by all who were touched by his life. May you all be comforted at this time. ##imported-begin##ashley (thomas) edge and kelly sprayberry##imported-end##

“ Dear Mr. and Mrs. Sturgis, Cara, and Tyler,
I am extremely upset of the news of Brian's passing. Brian was always a great friend. I'm glad I got to meet Brian and spend time with him and play ball with Brian almost my whole life at Wills Park. I trying to figure out why in the past year we have lost two of the greatest people i have ever known and will ever know. The only conclusion is God must have needed some help and will definately get it with Brian. My deepest regards to your entire family. ##imported-begin##Nick Barron##imported-end##

“ Jeff, Candy, Cara, and Tyler, Our deepest sympathy in this time of tragedy. We have not been in touch in recent years, but it seems like yesterday that our children were in grade school together. I remember a time when Brian had visited us and within a day our beagle was loose and made her way to your house. I still do not have an answer to that one as she had never been to your home. Many times we do not have the answers but I pray you will feel God's love and know that He is with us through the best of times and, especially, the worst of times. God bless you and keep you in His loving care. With love, The David Bush family##imported-begin##Bush Family##imported-end##

“ To the Sturgis Family: Please know that Brian left his footprints on the hearts of so many people. I have spent some of the best times of my life with Brian. One spring break in college, about 10 of us went up to my parents condo at the beach in NC. It was freezing the whole week and not much room to sleep. Every time I think of Brian that trip comes to mind. It ended up being one of the best times I have ever had. Thank you so much for sharing Brian with us. He was so special and so loved. -Melissa Northrop##imported-begin##Melissa Northrop ##imported-end##

“ To the Sturgis family,
Words cannot even begin to describe. Brian was my oldest and one of my best friends in this world. I have thought many times over about how to place words in a telephone call or through other means. None of them seem even close. I cannot even even put into words my sympathies and condolences. May Peace be with him, and yourselves. I weep from the bottom of my heart with you, Mr. and Mrs. Sturgis, Cara and Tyler. Words cannot do any justice. If there is anything, anything I can do, please let me know.##imported-begin##Nick Wells##imported-end##

“ To the Sturgis Family, I met Brian and the rest of his buddies when we all worked at Fridays. I can hardly put into words how deeply saddened I am to hear about this tragedy. Brian was one of those guys that was genuinely nice to all he came in contact with and he will forever be truly missed. Your family is in my thoughts and my prayers.##imported-begin##Joey Gangi##imported-end##

“ I cannot imagine the loss Jeff and the Sturgis family is feeling. Brian had an extremely bright future at SCP and I speak for the entire team here when I say we will profoundly miss his quick mind, intensity and the ease at which he handled relationships with others. Our prayers are with you in this time of tragedy.##imported-begin##Craig Thompson##imported-end##

“ We are so sorry for your loss. This is the most difficult thing that any parent has to deal with. Brian was a very close friend of our son Eric whom we suddenly lost a year ago. We will grieve with you and hope that your sorrow in some way can be partially relieved in knowing that Brian had many close friends who will remember and cherish him and the time they spent together. “ Brian,
We will always remember that smug smile! Your unique humor would brighten up any gloomy day! You were a great friend to me in high school and at youth group. You have a wonderful family and an awesome group of friends that will miss you dearly. Your memory will live on in the hearts of all of us. Can't wait to see you again.
