“ Although I had not been involved in Andy's day to day life in many years, I still consider him one of my good friends! He was a mentor to me in many ways and always a good "shoulder" to lean on. I hope that Andy can finally find the peace that he has been searching for since losing Debbie. I will always keep Andy's memory in my heart.
My prayers go out to the family.##imported-begin##Randy Goodman##imported-end##

“ My dearest Ferguson and Keeling families. I have known my Brother Andy since he graduated the University of Georgia and went to work for his Dad , wonderful Bill. Our yards were only a few hundred yards apart. We did lots of business together and became fast friends. A wonderful piece of my life is gone. Andy was the best man I knew and I was Blessed to have him in my life. Words can never express the positive Impact Andy made on so many lives.
I am very proud of Andy's life and everyone also should be. I am sure Andy will continue to be a help and support to all. For wonderful Andy stories please don't hesitate to Email me for some great memories of a most Special Extraordinary Human Being. This is a huge loss for me , my shock and sadness are overwhelming. It would be an honor for me to help Andy's family with whatever is needed in your hour of great loss. All who knew Andy are so blessed and the better for it. My Love to everyone who Loved My Brother Brooke Andrew Ferguson.##imported-begin##Guy,Loretta and Maury Bernstein##imported-end##

“ Erin and family...I am so sorry for your loss. I am at a loss of words to say to you. I worked with Andy for the last 5 years, and he was a great man. I used to love hearing him laugh and talk about all the kids and his new grand baby. Please know that you are not alone on this journey, we are praying for you.##imported-begin##Ashley Hollamon##imported-end##
