“ We are sorry that we cannot be there to share this time with you in person. Never forget how special you all are to us and how you have touched our lives.

We will all miss Chris and his winning smile. He was a wonderful person -- the product of an equally wonderful family. None of us will truly be able to understand what this has been like for you. But in our own way each one of us feels as if we have lost a little piece of a son, a brother and a best friend.

May the Lord of Light and Grace bring you comfort and peace. May all of the good things that define Chris live on in each of you every day for the rest of your lives, that he shall not be forgotten.##imported-begin##Steve, Jacki, Lexie, Sam Lilly, Lucy and Adam Brada##imported-end##

“ Dear Jennifer, Holly and Arthur,
I am so sorry for your loss. Since I have moved to TN, I will not be able to attend Bruce's funeral. My thoughts and prayers will be with you however. Bruce and Kim were kind and good neighbors. The comfort is knowing they are at peace together forever. Much love,
