Bryan and I attended the Fulton County Police Academy together. He was great fun to be with, and I enjoyed seeing him at the Courthouse as well. A great man, who is truly missed.

“ Bryan and I met when I arrested the man who stole his truck many years ago. He was new to Atlanta and we became friends as we crossed paths with work. He is a kind soul who would go the extra mile to help anyone. God needed an angel to help his missions in heaven and called him home. May he Rest In Peace - He has earned that from his deeds here on Earth. He will be missed & see you soon Brother.

“ Was my partner in Marshal’s Dept. for many years. A private man who kept to himself and minded his own business. He will be missed!

“ I knew Bryan when he first started with Marshall 's Office as was fresh out of the military. He was a real nice guy and would be ready to assist me anytime that I needed a backup unit. I was with Sheriff's dept and for the most part, the Marshall's office would send a backup unit more so than the sheriffs dept. I never knew why that was, and realistically didn't care as they were for the most part, a bunch of useless lazy deputies. I kept that to myself for a reason, but now that I'm happily retired , I can tell my feelings. Getting back Dept Marshall Busy, if he was in my area or even nearby, there was never a doubt regarding being asked.

May he Rest In Peace now & God Bless him and his family
