“ *I truly wanted to be at the memorial service. Circumstances would not allow. I want to thank Lynn Mays, a dear friend who I first met on a south bound train to Miami. Bryan was also on this train. Many friends were made but only a few became close ones after the infamous senior year trip to the Bahamas was over. Lynne and I became inseparable and even ended up as roommates in college. Sometime after that Bryan and I ended up being roomies at Valdosta State. Even though we went our separate ways as I suppose it was meant to be, I always hoped Bryan was happy and had a family. Now as I read these wonderful words from all of you, I know. Thank you for letting me share a few precious memories that will always mean so much to me.
Thank you Lynne for being the one who stayed in contact. I love you, Tracy##imported-begin##Tracy Pappas-White Eufaula, Ala.##imported-end##*

“ I am Tories Mother and Bryan was a wonderful Father and Husband to my daughter. When he came to see us he was ver ill and tried to act as though things were wonderful. And they were. Torie was bless to find Bryan and Harison and Caroline. We knew him for a few short years but found out quickly how unique he was and how he just wanted to show such a good example. Torie did so well and God will bless her for standing with Bryan in his time on need. We Love you so very much. Brian we love you and will miss your calm demure. Know that you were love.

“ As I held Bryan's hand during prayer at the recent funeral of a mutual friend, I wondered at the battle going on in Bryan's life. I just learned today of his passing and my heart is a little heavier but filled with the inspiration he showed in his battle with cancer. I will not forget that incredible smile, beautiful eyes, nor the dignity he showed in his fight for life. Bryan was a part of my life during those special days at Pineland and I will cherish his memory always. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you...###imported-begin###Jan Shiver Crowell###imported-end##

“ We have many acquaintances and casual friends in our lives but only a few can be called close friends. Bryan was a close friend of mine and I will miss him. Whenever I visited him in Moultrie, Lawrenceville or Smyrna I was always warmly welcomed and truly treated as though I was a member of the family. He loved his wonderful children and Torie very much and you could always see the love they had for him.

I felt particularly privileged because Bryan knew how much I loved to hunt and even when we had not seen each other for some time he would call and invite me to shoot birds. We had some great times telling our hunting stories to each other even when we knew they were somewhat embellished. We just accepted it and embellished the next story even more.

God bless Harrison, Caroline, Torie, Tracy , all of the Clark brothers and other Clark family members. He was a fine man, husband and father. He was a good friend and I will miss him.##imported-begin##Bruce Martin##imported-end##

“ The world seems a little less bright today, knowing that Bryan is no longer among us. The Pineland group was so blessed to have him with us last year in Cordele. Brilliant smile, positive attitude, and nothing but hopeful about his own life - Bryan remains an inspiration.##imported-begin##Lynne Mays##imported-end##

“ Our sympathy is with Bryan’s family and especially his young children. I have not seen Bryan recently, but I have always thought of him as family and loved him. When Bryan visited us, he made himself at home and was so easy to be with. Many times I have thought of the things that he would tell us that were so funny and the way he looked at life about some things. We will miss Bryan, but we will not forget him. “ Bryan and I have known each other for over 25 years and he was one of my very best friends. Bryan was always full of life and friendly to everyone. It is extremely difficult for me to realize that I will never see nor speak with Bryan again during my life on earth. However, it is comforting to me to know that even though we experience death of our flesh, that we do not experience death of our spirit. Our spirit lives on for all of eternity as a result of Jesus Christ crucifixion and resurrection. The Resurrection was a holy proclamation that Jesus Christ conquered death and it guarantees there is life beyond the grave. This past Friday night, the heavenly Angels came and received Bryan within their arms and delivered his spirit wonderfully and miraculously to our Heavenly Father for all of eternity. May God bless all of Bryan's family and friends during this time and into the future. As Bryan would always say to me every time we departed. "I Love you Brother", and today I say to Bryan, May you rest in the eternal peace of God, and I love you Brother.

Best Regards,

“ I met Bryan several years ago through my brother, Michael, who was a very close friend of Bryan. We, along with our Mother, would often speak fondly of Bryan. He had sense of humor and loved his family deeply. Bryan gave me the impression that he has a zest for life and really wanted to see his children grow to adulthood. I know that both of his children will always be proud of Bryan. He was entrepreneurial and had a strong work ethic. I pray God's blessings on Bryan's family and that God will give them all the peace that passes human understanding.
