

Rev . Carl D. Jameson

June 28, 1930 - September 7, 2014

Carl D. Jameson went peacefully to be with the Lord September 7, 2014 surrounded by his family. Carl, 84, will be remembered most for his love of God, selflessness, generous nature, kind heart, and love and devotion to his family. He is survived by his wife of 64 years, Ruth Chambers Jameson, daughters Debbie and Danny Tippens, Connie and Larry Woltz and son Rick and Cindy Jameson, grandchildren, Wes Blackwood (Lisa) of Macon, GA; Blake Woltz (Michelle) of Canton, GA; Steven Blackwood (Sara) of Milwaukee, WI; Erica Rivers (Jonathan) of Canton, GA and Spencer Jameson (Jordan) of Nashville, TN, great-grandchildren Carly and Sadie Blackwood, Anniston and Tyson Rivers.

Carl was an avid baseball player growing up in North Fulton and he never lost that competitive spirit. He enjoyed the Braves, Dawgs football and Yellow Jackets baseball. He was an avid golfer. Carl was also a successful business man. Whether at work, or on the ball field or golf course, Carl used every opportunity to share Christ.

For over fifty years, Carl, with his wife Ruth, pastored the following churches: Crabapple First Baptist, Waleska First Baptist, Antioch Baptist, Willeo Baptist, Union Hill Baptist and Atlanta Street Baptist. As “pastor” he was an inspiration to all, faithfully fulfilling the role of pastor through his countless hours of mentoring, visiting, counseling, and praying; all because of his love for Christ and others.

Carl accepted his calling to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ and he did so faithfully. Heaven will only record the impact he has had on the thousands he has witnessed to during his ministry. In lieu of flowers please make contributions to "The Mission Programs" in his memory at Atlanta Street Baptist Church, 340 South Atlanta Street, Roswell, GA 30075.

Visitation will be Thursday, September 11, 2:00PM to 4:00PM and 6:00PM to 8:00PM at Northside Chapel, 12050 Crabapple Rd., Roswell, GA.

A Celebration of Carl Jameson's life will take place 2:00 p.m. Friday September 12, 2014 at Crabapple First Baptist Church in Milton, GA.

Carl Jameson was a very humble, hardworking individual, devoted to his wife and family, while being faithful to God's calling and his congregations. We know God has wrapped his loving arms around Carl and said "Well done thou good and faithful servant".

“ I recall Rev Jameson being as synonymous to Crabapple as the church and the tiny community. There was never one without the other. Heaven has a new angel! My condolences to the family. May God comfort you all during this difficult time.

“ It was a true blessing to walk a few miles along life's way with Rev. Jameson as our pastor. He was truly a man dedicated to the Lord's work and spreading the GOOD news about Salvation. I know that the Crabapple community is a better place because of his labors for the Lord. My prayers to Ruth.

“ As a young Christian I was so blessed to have Carl as a role model and a sometimes mentor. While he sometimes jokingly referred to himself as "old cold Carl", we knew better, what a big heart this good man had. I will always remember him fondly as generous and gracious. We met for breakfast about a year ago and I am so glad that I took that occasion to tell Carl what a blessing he had been to my family..... Our thoughts and prayers are with Ruth, Debbie, Connie and Rick..... mike corsello

“ Many precious memories in my childhood come from Pastor Carl Jameson and Crabapple First Baptist Church. Vivid memories of him performing the baptism of my Mother, giving my Father comfort and guidance in his last days, singing "Deep and Wide" in our little child voices with our hands in motion on Sunday mornings, trying to keep a tin foil halo on for a Christmas play, and breaking bread after prayer at the Jameson family reunions.

You have been a beacon of strength and blessing during the good and difficult times in our family and gave me the knowledge of the light that shines in me, You always brought "The Good News". You saying those particular words always brought me closer to God, enriched my soul, and put a Joy, Joy, Joy, Joy, down in my heart. I'm pretty sure you and Harvey Jameson will be playing a round of golf in heaven on the most beautiful course you have ever seen or a baseball game will be going on soon because I think most of the players from the early days are back together again. I'll never forget you pastor and the influence you have had in my life.

“ Seeing Carl Jameson's face in this post is exactly how I picture him in my mind. That one eyebrow always up, I believe it was used to see so clearly into a person's soul. It was necessary I believe so he could see exactly what Rx of Scripture was necessary to lift and inspire. I have never met a man more in tune with the leading of the Holy Spirit, than Carl Jameson. I recall times when I was little and how he would give a Word right when I needed it....to save me from a bigger mess I was about to make. I would wonder, "how did he know I buried my brother's matchbox cars...he wasn't even there", Carl Jameson wasn't there, but My Father was and He moved in this man to give a much needed Word:) In my 20's, Carl Jameson spoke to me about my true identity in Christ. It was the first time I had ever heard of such. That critical nugget has saved me many times. When my husband and I found out we were pregnant, we decided to name our son Jameson. For me it was personal, I wanted my child to have the name of the man who most inspired me to be who I was designed to be. I thought of Carl Jameson many times. The words he gave me in due season with the perfect seasoning is what gave me the courage to study God's Word & apply it to life. The last time I saw him, my son Jameson was with me. The two hit if off as I knew they would due to Carl Jameson's quick wit, sincerity & uncanny ability to meet a person right where they were at any given moment. Of course we all left with lighter hearts and tummies of laughter. What a wonderful man, one of a kind. If my Jameson is a fraction of this great man, he will soar to amazing heights. Thank you Carl Jameson for always being true to who you are & being such a rock for our family, even in generations to come.

“ In the small town of Alpharetta, in the late sixties....Carl visited a couple who had just built their first home. He shared God's word - told them Jesus had died for them. The couple accepted Christ that day. And my life has been blessed since. The young couple were my parents. Not only was I raised in a Christian home - i was raised in Crabapple Baptist Church. So many blessings....

My thoughts and prayers are with the Jameson family,

much love,

“ My condolences to all the Jameson family!! I loved Carl Jameson - what a sweet, kind, spiritual man. Fond memories growing up of him coaching baseball in Crabapple. Crossed paths again with him and Rick in the late '70's as I worked for my family in the Lighting Business. And then I've been blessed as our paths crossed off and on over the past 4 years. He was so kind to visit my mom, Neal in the hospital a couple of times. I never got to experience hearing Carl in the pulpit as I attended church elsewhere (growing up) but I had so much respect for him and his legacy at Crabapple First Baptist. When you were around Carl, his spirit and example always bore witness that he was a Child of God and a servant to others. Rest in peace Coach! I will see you on the "other side"! Love and prayers to Rick, Carl's sweet wife, and all the Jameson Family. J. Marlon Nunnally / Alpharetta, GA

“ In our way of thinking, Carl will always be our only "pastor" since 1965 even though we were blessed to have many others. He was just so special and God had given him wonderful gifts of loving, caring, ministering, teaching along with many other gifts. Along with Ruth, they will always be in our thoughts and prayers as a wonderful example of what a married couple should be, and how they each complimented each other.. He was such an encourager and took so much interest in everyone. We lived thru thick and thin with Ruth and Carl, and have so many fond memories: ice cream socials, tubing down the Chattahoochee, playing soft ball, visiting with friends and families, ministering in our time of need, and so much more it is hard to recall.

While we were so blessed to have him here at Crabapple, Heaven will also rejoice in having him there. True, he couldn't carry a turn in a bucket but it didn't stop him from trying. I'm sure God will have something very special for this wonderful man of God.

No doubt Ricky, Connie and Debbie will never forget his teachings from God's word and the wonderful example he set as a father and husband. If we could be a little something like Carl, God would be very pleased.

Our love and fondest memories to the entire family.

“ Pastor Carl will be missed. As a "Yankee" abruptly removed from my Italian roots in NJ, Crabapple Baptist church became my first church home. Carl and Ruth provided our family with such love and warmth that we felt immediately welcome in our new city. Between choir and sunday / Wednesday services, Crabapple was our home. We have such wonderful memories in that church and most were of pastor Carl. God has blessed me and my family by bringing Carl into our lives. Thank God we left NJ and found Crabapple.

“ I have no recollection of the time pictured in the fellowship hall except to know that I was probably reciting scripture since both Pastor Carl and my Grandfather ensured that I could do so from birth forward. Clearly whatever it was he had me doing it was entertaining as usual. Nevertheless, I do have many fond memories of "Mr. Jameson" as he led the most wonderful group of people I have ever known to raise me up in the way I should go. As I told Debbie, Rick and the FB community the night he passed... There is no measure to the impact this man had on this earth. He is one of the few men in my life that I have ever had unwaivering respect for. Much of what I have become, the values and morals I have today became entrenched under the guidance and leadership of this Christian warrior. You will be missed Carl Jameson. Please tell Papaw hello for me and that we will all be together again soon singing "Blessed Assurance" soon.

“ My family will always be indebted to Carl... he spiritually, emotionally, and financially helped to sustain my family when my father passed away after a long bout of cancer (at a very early age). As the Pastor at Crabapple Baptist, he witnessed to, baptized, married, and eulogized multiple generations of our family. If the Baptists ever want to get into nominating "Saints", we will submit his name at the top of the list (Carl would appreciate the humor). He honored his Savior at all times... truly a Man of God. Our condolences to the entire Jameson family. Bengy (Ben) Cagle, Carmen Cagle Smith, Marion Willene Cagle

“ What a blessing to know a loving and a caring man of God like Rev. Carl Jameson. He was a friend and a mentor. He welcomed me and Mitspa Haitian Baptist Church with love to worship in ASBC because of his obedience to the great Commission and to Christ many Haitians came to know the Lord as their personal Savior. Rev. Jameson played a major influence in my life and my congregation that I would cherish for ever. My thoughts and my prayers go out to his beloved family.

“ Pastor Carl welcomed Sid and I with open arms and a big smile from the first day we walked into ASBC. The last prayer I heard him pray was one that included our daughter Chelsea. We have special memories of sharing a meal at Carl and Ruth's home and at McAllister's after church. Our family has been blessed to know such a loving and caring man of God.
