Carl Raymond Molter, 85, of Belleville, WI died on Wednesday, February 10, 2021 at Arbor Terrace Assisted Living in Alpharetta, GA where he had been a resident for the past four years. Even when living in Georgia, Carl would be dressed every day in his Badgers red or Packers green. He was also an avid outdoorsman. He loved to fish and hunt. “ I grew up with Helen and we were high school classmates and friends. During the years we all were raising young families, Carl and Helen would join with us and other classmates and spouses for potlucks, picnics, parties, whatever inexpensive fun we contrived. We enjoyed getting to know Carl and have wonderful memories of time spent with them over the years. We offer our condolences to all who have admired and loved him. Arita and Lowell Jevens

“ *Jeff and Mike....my deepest sympathies to you and your families. I will never forget looking out my bedroom window and seeing the large garden that your dad tended to summer after summer. Lots of fun neighborhood memories! Of course, Carl was also one of my favorite teachers from Belleville High. He certainly was the reason that I love science. So many funny memories from Chemistry and Bio! There was the time of the chemistry experiment gone wrong and his sport coat having holes over it from the sparks that flew. Then, the fun memories of dissecting frogs. Oh my!!! He was the best...so kind, patient and gentle. My heart goes out to all of you and may Carl now rest in peace!

“ Mr Molter taught all four of our kids chemistry at Belleville HS. They all enjoyed his classes and his sense of humor. He sold us our complete set of World Book encyclopedias the summer when our oldest was going into fourth grade. We still have them. I prepared his taxes for many years and he was such a thoughtful client!!

“ Mr Molter was my high school science teacher. He was fabulous! He challenged Jim Gibbons and me grow bacteria in biology. Once started, it almost took over the science room! He laughed. He was part of a group of "young" teachers who made Belleville HS a great place in the 1960's.

“ Carl was my teacher for high school science and probably one of the reasons I ended up becoming a science teacher. I very much enjoyed his classes although I probably wasn't the type of student I wish I was. He was kind and passionate. He had great activities that we participated in. He was forgiving of us as students and he kept us moving ahead. I have LOTS of memories from those classes and they were always about what we were doing. I honestly hope that my science classes have produced 1/10th of the good memories in my students that Carl did with me. RIP

“ Uncle Carl was my childhood hero. Took me rabbit hunting (I was the dog to flush out the rabbits) around Cedar Grove. Brought my bro and I to Port Washington to catch peach. Warned us no to tell gramma that he took us kids out on the break wall. Also let me sit in his lap and steer his red car on the road by Bar creek, shoot apple morters with pipes cherry bombs and granpas apples. Greatest unclle a kid could have. Great memories.

“ I suppose nearly everyone who has achieved any degree of happiness or success in life can look back and point to one or two teachers that were directly responsible. In my case that teacher was definitely Carl Molter. Forever grateful. Condolences to your family.

“ I always enjoyed my classes with him. He also let me have a lot of time in the photo lab. I would often interrupt his class to work in the lab. He was also a good sport about students lighting the alcohol burners and rolling them across the floor. Thanks for being such good person and teacher.

“ Carl was an excellent teacher and a dedicated athletic director. I had him as an instructor for biology, chemistry, and biotechnology. He also helped guide Belleville into the co-op soccer program beginning in the fall of 1993. He had a great sense of humor and allowed students a lot of freedom in his classroom.

“ I will always remember how much he helped us out in Photo Club. Always there to lend a hand or a suggestion on how to improve your photo or how you were processing something wrong. I wasn't much of a science guy, but I did enjoy his classes.

I am Isla Argue Wilson. Mr Molter was one of my favorite teachers! I had him for every science class from 1962-1969. One of my favorite memories was when I was in his chemistry class. We had just moved into the new HS building and we had a beautiful new science lab. We had to do several experiments involving the use of a Bunsen burner. I had a terrible fear of fire so my partner always started that for me. Until one day Mr Molter said I had to show I could light it or hr would fail me. So of course I had to light the Bunsen burner. I started very hesitantly and nothing happened. Mr. Molter said to turn up the gas. I did. Again I couldn't get it started. Again he said turn up the gas. After several times of turning up the gas, it finally started. However, the flame was shooting all the way up to the ceiling! I of course panicked, but Mr. Molter, still lecturing the class, walked by and without saying a word turned down the gas! He never said another word about that experience, but he did pass me and allowed my lab partner to go back to being in charge of the Bunsen Burner. He always made our classes fun and interesting. He had a dry wit and a kind heart!

We shared a lot of memories. Several years of canoeing the Wisconsin River. Carl and Don went duck hunting one fall day in a canoe on the Sugar River . They came across a fence across the river and Carl proceeds to lift it up with a wet paddle. It was an electric fence and they both ended up overturned in the river. He was quite the guy. My favorite "Carl" story was the time he put a wheelbarrow full of vegetables/produce out at the curb with a sign that read "free" meaning the veges.. Someone took the wheelbarrow. There were plenty of snowblower/missing finger jokes, too. What great guy/friend.

One of the good guys in life; someone understated and humble whose strength of character is more apparent and appreciated as I've raised my own family. Best wishes to Mike and Jeff. Requiescet en Pace.

We were watching a slide presentation and I fell asleep with my head on my desk. When the lights were turned on Mr. Molter was standing next to me. He said "Did we wake you up Miss Adams?" The class had a pretty good laugh. I was mortified, but I laugh about it now. He was one of my favorite teachers. A kind man with a great sense of humor. Ginny Adams Cahalan, class of 1966
