“ I knew Carol for years.. I have been in Roswell for 27 years. I meet Carol at the bank of course because she worked all the time and she ordered flowers from us and I always loved running into her. We would compare how many hours we worked the last few weeks and She worked so Hard and was so dedicated to her Jobs Seems like she always had a second Job going and We would always say maybe one of these days it would slow down for us..Carol always had a smile on her face..I do hope in Heaven she does not start working on some project for Our Lord and Savior immediately and takes a litte time for herself that she so deserves..I will really miss her even if it was just at CVS, grocery store or the Bank.###imported-begin##PAT HODGES (THE BEST LITTLE FLOWER SHOP)###imported-end##

“ Ricky,

I was so sorry to hear the news about Carol. I to Have known her since high school. I even worked with her dad at the phone company.

She always was so friendly and always had that beautiful smile. My heart goes out to you and your family. You will be in our prayers. I hope you find comfort in these verses: II Corinthians 1-3,4 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort. Who comforts us in all our tribulations, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

“ Dear Ricky and Kim,

It is hard to put into words how sad we are with the loss of Carol. All of the bankers back to Roswell bank days are reaching out to each other to share wonderful memories of the great times we had with Carol. Rarely do you see someone who cares so much for others. I asked Carol one night when she showed up at the hospital to comfort me at midnight in the waiting room how she could possibly look so good after working two jobs and never slowing down for a minute. Several years ago out of the blue a huge basket showed up at my office from Carol...just to say "thinking of you". That's who she was...putting others first. We will miss her. Love to you both.##imported-begin##Karen Pilcher##imported-end##
