“ Dear Jack, Ashley and Joanne,
My deepest and heartfelt sympathy to you all. I have been searching for the words to say since I first heard of Carolyn's passing a couple of weeks ago. Sometimes words are simply not enough, nor convey how one truly feels, Some of my most fondest memories, which like many of us, center around our youth, you Joanne, Carolyn and your Mom and Dad Kay and Ed I hold dear. Your family really came through for us when we lost our Dad so young. Your Mom and Carolyn were there for Pat and made her transition through such a tragedy less unbearable. For many years after Dad died and Mom went back to work your Mom opened her house and time up to Pat and gave her that safe after school haven until Mom got home from work. Many a night your Mom and my Mom opened the door to watch Pat walk from your house to ours often with a casserole or prepared dinner from your Mom in hand. Whenever there was a problem with the house within minutes your dad would be there, often taking the time and having the patience to teach me a few things besides "home repairs" along the way. Pat and Carolyn were inseparable for many years there after, through grade school, high school and beyond. Carolyn was simply like another Sister as she was always there, and at times it was almost as if her and Pat were twins. Pat and Carolyn defined friendship. It truly was if part of my immediate family had passed away when I heard the news of Carolyn. I have nothing but fond memories of Carolyn, your Mom and Dad and you Joanne my classmate, neighbor and friend of many years. All I can offer is my sadness, my prayers, my sympathy, my heartfelt wish that Carolyn rest in Peace along with sharing one of my fondest memories of a time when neighbors mattered and were family, went that extra mile for each other and set the example of unconditional love for us all no matter which house in the subdivision we lived in. To Carolyn and to our youth and our most precious and fondest memories of a time and place that defined and shaped us.##imported-begin##Tim Caimi##imported-end##

“ There were so many of us in Ballwin Hills...each family (and there were MANY) had two or more kids. We always had great times together. The Sehnerts, the Bush's, the Dolans, the Buback's, the Gettemeiers, the Aufmuth's, and so on. So many more, and some who did not go to Holy Infant or Kennedy. Fortunately for us, most of us are still in the land of the living. I am so sorry to hear about Carolyn. We were quite a group of rag-tag kids who did well for ourselves. Sehnert liked to say we came from the "wrong side of Manchester", but I look at all of us and I have to say from Archbishop of New York, to owners of small companies, we have all exceeded our lot! Carolyn was part of that awesome group of people. I have to say we all grew up blessed!! I'm sure she will be missed by all. God's blessing to you during your time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Lisa Schiller Lehr##imported-end##

“ Carolyn was my best friend growing up in Ballwin, MO. I nevr think of my youth without thinking of Carolyn. Our endless hours of Barbies, bike riding, and teenage girl talk. Carolyn could always make me laugh. I had the great honor of being in her and Jack's wedding. Words seem so inadequate at this time of sorrow, my deepest sympathies are with Jack, Ashley and Joanne; you are in my prayers and thoughts.##imported-begin##Pat Caimi Maxwell##imported-end##
