

Mrs. Carolyn W. Millar

January 2, 1928 - May 26, 2014

Carolyn W. Millar of Roswell, beloved mother and grandmother, passed away in her sleep on May 26th.

Carolyn was born on January 2, 1928 in Chicago. She studied business and journalism there, becoming the editor of the school newspaper. She later worked in special services at the Continental Bank in Chicago and helped start their first in-house magazine. She married in 1947 and worked as a part-time bookkeeper in various cities. In 1965, she remarried and moved to Atlanta where she was a homemaker and mother. She participated in church and school functions, Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, garden club, and various crafts. She painted china for twenty-two years. She enjoyed traveling and spending time at the North Carolina mountain home that she and her husband built. In 2005, she moved to St. George Village in Roswell where she made many wonderful new friends. After the sudden death of her husband, she continued the philanthropy they had enjoyed together.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her two brothers, her husband of fifteen years, Robert C. Peard, and her husband of forty-one years, James R. Millar.

She will be lovingly remembered by her six children -- daughter Cathy Zoch, sons Tom Peard, John Peard, Rob Peard, James Millar, Steven Millar, their spouses, her seven grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

She will be interred with her husband James at Georgia National Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Carolyn's name to Georgia Transplant Foundation, 500 Sugar Mill Road Suite 170-A, Atlanta, GA 30350 (678-514-1181) www.gatransplant.org/get-involved/tribute-donation/

Cemetery Details

Georgia National Cemetery

5580 Knox Bridge Hwy.,
Canton, GA

Previous Events

Graveside Service

JUN 2. 10:00 AM (ET)

Georgia National Cemetery
5580 Knox Bridge Hwy.,
Canton, GA

Tribute Wall

“ Mrs. Carolyn W. Millar

October 08, 2022 at 11:37 AM