

Mrs. Carrie MacMillan Robinson

January 25, 1943 - April 3, 2025

Carrie MacMillan Robinson, age 82, of Roswell, GA, passed away on Thursday, April 3, 2025.

She was born January 25, 1943 to the late Hugh and Margaret MacMillan of Atlanta, GA.

Before she began school, she moved with her family to Connecticut because of her father's work with the Coca Cola Company.

At age 14, Carrie's father took her to a Billy Graham Crusade, where she surrendered her life to Jesus Christ as her Savior and Lord. The HOLY SPIRIT took up residence in her, and began to radiate His love out of her face to others. He began shaping her into the image of Jesus.

At age 21, in 1964, she moved to San Francisco to begin her life in business.

She joined with Sutro & Co., a stock brokerage firm. There, she met Dick Robinson. They married in Noroton Presbyterian Church, Darien, CT, in 1965. Their marriage was ultimately based on the Lord's principles and brought great love and joy to nearly 60 years of wonderful marriage.

Their marriage was blessed with three children; Laura (Danny), Gwen (Mitch) and Daniel (Meridyth). These three have provided Dick and Carrie with 10 wonderful grandchildren. She is also survived by her two brothers, Hugh and Charles.

In December, 1974, Carrie and Dick joined hands and prayed to be baptized with the Holy Spirit (to be filled by and empowered by the Holy Spirit). After that moment, their lives have had noticeable supernatural empowering as they ministered during God's assignments (Ephesians 2:10).

On July 16th, 1976, when God had placed his call on Dick to become a pastor, Carrie assumed the role of Pastor's Wife. In this Calling, she brought countless blessings to God's Flock. She ministered love, wisdom, encouragement, and healing to many - especially among the women.

She came to be a spiritual "mother" to so many, and they experienced God's healing love through her. In this pursuit, she connected best with others mostly during one-on-one time together. We rejoice that she is now in the presence of the Lord.

Though we miss her, we are very grateful for our years together.

Her Celebration of Life service will be on Saturday, April 26th, at Northside Chapel (12050 Crabapple Road, Roswell).

Visitation will be at 9:00 AM and the service will be at 10:00, with a reception afterward.

Please know you are warmly invited.

Please visit www.northsidechapel.com to share memories and leave condolences to the family.

Cemetery Details

Cremation - Northside Chapel Crematory

12050 Crabapple Road
Roswell, GA

Previous Events

Visitation

APR 26. 9:00 AM - 10:00 AM (ET)

Northside Chapel Funeral Directors & Crematory
12050 Crabapple Road
Roswell, GA

Celebration Of Life

APR 26. 10:00 AM (ET)

Northside Chapel Funeral Directors & Crematory
12050 Crabapple Road
Roswell, GA

Tribute Wall

DW

“ Carrie was my roommate in boarding school and we stayed friends after graduating and she was the maid of honor in my wedding - we met at a reunion in Falmouth Ma. a decade ago - though it seems when I think of her that it was just yesterday we were plotting to do something fun - Her picture has captured the teen and 20 year old I knew so well - I thought she was my most beautiful friend. God Bless - I wish I could have shared some of her life and the joys she had with her family and grandchildren. Memories will keep he with us. daryl Westbrook

Daryl Westbrook - May 06, 2025 at 03:07 PM

MR

“ I had the joy of having Carrie as my mother in law. My mother-in-law had a calming presence, finding joy in the peace of a quiet home (something we have a shared appreciation of) and strength in her unwavering love for the Lord. She also had a wonderful sense of comedic timing and a flair for words—her wit often catching us off guard and leaving us smiling. She didn't need to be loud to be heard; her life spoke volumes in grace, humor, and love. She leaves behind a legacy that will continue to bless us all.

Meridyth Robinson - April 24, 2025 at 10:08 AM

ET

“ Mimi,

Words can't describe what a blessing you were to me. I thank God for giving me such a sweet grandmother. Whenever I think of a memory of you, I think of your gentle heart and how kind you were to me. You taught me to love Jesus more than anything. You were always there, from making me the best oatmeal ever to sitting down and giving me advice. I miss you, your sweet hugs, and our conversations. I am so thankful that you are finally free. I love you very, very much.

Elena

---

Elena Taylor - April 19, 2025 at 09:00 PM

“ I met Carrie 13 years ago, shortly after migrating to the U.S. from Kenya, through my sister Laura—Carrie’s daughter. From the very beginning, Carrie and Dick welcomed me with open arms, embracing me as a son. Carrie truly became a mother figure in my life. Along with Dick and the entire family, they made me feel like one of their own, opening their home and hearts to me. Whether it was birthdays, family gatherings, holidays, breakfasts, or our monthly Friday night prayer meetings, I was always included. I also had the privilege of attending church services at FBC with the whole family, always finding a seat right next to Mom.

I’ll always cherish how Carrie would sit beside me, eager to talk and share her wisdom. I smile now, recalling our conversations. I remember one particular time when she expressed concern that I might miss the chance to meet someone special after deciding to move from Georgia to Tennessee. As it turned out, she was right—I returned to Georgia within a month, and five months later, I met my wife. Mom knew best.

May God grant her soul eternal peace. I can only imagine the gentle, radiant smile she must have now in the presence of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

---

Timothy Maloi - April 15, 2025 at 07:55 AM

CA

I met Dick and Carrie when they were first looking at St George Village as a community . They had me so intrigued talking about a spirit filled church ! I didnt know what that meant so i asked if i could join them. Boy, was I in for a wonderful surprise! It was a hole in the wall place in a strip mall and I had my socks knocked off! I will always hold Dick and Carrie special in my heart for bringing me to the Lord bringing me back to the Lord! Carrie ended up being somebody that I could confide in and have Wonderful conversations. She ended up guiding me in so many ways. I always felt a special connection with her I'm so happy that she's with God! I like picturing lots and lots of big hugs with Jesus and a tremendous smile.. Love you, Carrie.
Caroline

---

Caroline Akers - April 15, 2025 at 05:17 PM

CA

❤️ Caroline

---

Caroline Akers - April 15, 2025 at 05:18 PM

CM

I have met and know Carrie when she moved in assisted living and memory care. Carrie stole my heart as she share the same birthday with my first neice and seems to have the same personality. I could felt the warmth and the love she gives off. I always kept her closer to me once she came to TOL to called it home. I always make sure her needs are met and voice it to everyone. Her daughter Laura could not have had a more beautiful mom. Dick she was a gem and thanks for sharing her with us. I pray that God will give you all the peace, the love and to continue with Carrie 's memory.
With all my love. Ceceile Mock.

---

Ceceile Mock - April 19, 2025 at 12:14 PM

PB

*Dick, Laura, Gwen and Danny,
I am sad with you, and also rejoicing with you, that Carrie is no longer present with you, but is alive with Jesus. Carrie and Dick both had an instrumental role in my life, as well as the lives of many others, during their time at Reynolda Presbyterian church, and in the years after you moved to Anderson and then Roswell. Your lives exemplified passion for Jesus, and great generosity in giving of yourself to others. I am so grateful for both of you, and will forever cherish the shared hours with Carrie in ministry to a dear friend. What a glorious reunion we will have in heaven one day! Much love, Peggy Barrett (and Kelly)*

---

Peggy Barrett - April 20, 2025 at 07:51 PM

VL

I will forever remember you, Carrie, as my friend and as a co-mother. You were gracious enough to share your only son, Daniel, with me...as I am his "mother-in-love." Without hesitation, you welcomed my daughter, Meridyth, as your daughter-in-love. You and Meridyth shared a mutual fondness for one another and the occasional "sidebar talks" of your love for music, dancing and deep love of Daniel. I will do my best to honor your memory by continuing to love and support your son and your three grandsons: Jack, Luke and Graham. A mother's heart... knows a mother's heart. Until we meet again, I will remain mindful of your Christian walk, your wisdom and will celebrate and share stories of you with the boys. If ever I did meet a Proverbs 31 woman...it was you. Proverbs 31: 10-31

---

Vicki Lybrand - April 21, 2025 at 08:28 PM

DP

Dick, Laura, Gwen & Danny:

We benefited so much from Carrie and Dick's ministry at Reynolda. Your love for others and passion for the Lord transformed so many of us.

One of my favorite stories about Carrie is her telling me of a particularly demanding time of ministry for Dick. She said when he got in bed that night and turned to her, she replied: "Have we met?"

Her wry humor and penetrating insight allowed Dick to be mightily used in leading Reynolda in a great move of the Holy Spirit.

Tom and I love you all, and grieve her absence among us until we meet again.

Debbie Pullen

---

Debbie Pullen - April 27, 2025 at 02:54 PM