“ Ceil was always upbeat and fun. I have a fond memory of her visit to my home in Newbury, Ohio. When Matthew was about 3 months old she came for a visit. She help Matt up in the air and called him the Sheriff of Newbury. To this day I believe that is why Matthew was a police office for part of his life. Ceil's laughter will be missed by many. May the memory of her joy bring comfort to those left behind.##imported-begin##Jill (Fetick) Schappel##imported-end##

“ A poem in memory of Aunt Ceil
God looked around His garden
And He found an empty place
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your precious hurt face
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest;
God' s Garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain
He knew you' d never ever
Get well on earth again.
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered " Peace be thine "
Then He took you up to Heaven
With Hands so gentle and kind.
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God welcomed you home.##imported-begin##John Fetick##imported-end##

“ Distance and time kept us from really knowing one another in these later years. It was my loss to miss out on knowing more about you. I have a funny memory of you when I was kid, watching you put perfume on with one of those bulb sprayers. I can still smell it in the air. The world lost a classy lady and yet I hope that your are with your family enjoying eternal peace.##imported-begin##Matthew Fetick##imported-end##

“ Aunt Ceil,

I've told you so many time that you were my hero and my idol, which you didn't like at all. You lived your life the way I would have loved to. You lived doing what you wanted to do, with a deep love for God and your family. You will be missed more than you ever would have thought.
