Chandra Lynn Bearden James

July 6, 1963 - April 23, 2017

Chandra Lynn James, 53, of Alpharetta, GA passed away peacefully Sunday evening in Cumming, GA surrounded by family. The daughter of Tony and Peggy (Hall) Bearden, Chandra was born in Cobb County, GA and grew up in Marietta, GA. She graduated from Walton High School with honors in 1981. She received a bachelor degree in Marketing from Kennesaw College in 1985 and an Associate degree in Horticulture from Lanier Tech in 2012.

After marrying in December 6, 1985, Chandra lived in Pensacola, FL, Corpus Christi, TX and New Bern, NC before moving back to Marietta and subsequently Alpharetta, GA for the past 23 years. She worked for AT&T, Lucent Technologies for years. After leaving the corporate world, she worked in the fields that truly made her happy: animals, plants and flowers.

Chandra bravely fought Breast Cancer for six years. Her determination and endurance throughout her fight is inspirational. For her goal was to live long enough to care for her loving parents in their latter lives.

Surviving her departure includes her husband of 30 years, Brigadier General Bradley S. James, her parents, Tony & Peggy Bearden of Alpharetta, In-laws Patricia & Barney James of Austell, numerous aunts and uncles, sister-in-laws, brother-in-laws, nieces and nephews.

The Memorial Service for Mrs. James will be Wednesday, April 26, 2017 at 11am at the Northside Chapel Funeral Directors in Roswell, GA. Rev. Johnny Foster will officiate. Visitation is Tuesday, April 25, 2017 from 3pm - 5pm and 7pm-9pm at the funeral home. Mrs. James will be laid to rest at Green Lawn Cemetery, Roswell, GA.
