“ Dear Caudell Family,
I'm so thankful to have had The Caudell Family as my neighbors for many years growing up.
Mr. Charles taught me all kinds of things from gardening, yard work, and how to properly care for chickens and many many more things. He loved to spend time sharing all his flowers, giving me one to give to my mother who he called "Hurricane" on Mother's Day. He and Mrs. Caudell were like grandparents to me.
I enjoyed working with him during Christmas season selling Christmas Trees for Roswell Lions club what memories.
He taught me so much about what it meant to be a true leader by example as Christ would have us do, and not by dictating people. He showed most all characteristics of the fruit of the spirit on a daily basis. Wow if more of us could do that in a week!
How I miss one of the best neighbor and friend anybody could ever have. How I wish I could spend some time with him and talk a little longer with him, while he would reach down and get a couple of mint leaves, while he would say help your self put it in your tea and enjoy Brad.
I pray God will give The entire Caudell Family comfort through this time of loss I'm so thankful he is not suffering anymore and in heaven with his Lord.
God bless
The Brad Hansard and Family

“ David, I hope you know how much the Caudells have meant to the Seymours over the past many years. Your parents were so supportive of mine in their latter years and also during my father's active years of ministry. I Always got a kick when I would stop by to see your dad and he always had a plant or something he had grown to share with me. A very special man and family God bless Stuart

Condolences to the Caudell family. Charles Caudell was one of a kind and I enjoyed working with him and Claire. His energy and upbeat personality was contagious to those of us who knew him. A fond memory of when we started the Falcon Division and he came to my house in Terre Haute Indiana for breakfast. It has now been many years since the Superior Trucking Company reunion and one of the last time we saw one another, but I have often thought about various memories of when we worked at the same companies. His rolodex of contacts was seemingly endless and valuable for finding freight. Many times he was asked to say the blessing at our meals and gatherings. Therefore, I knew he had the most important contact of all!

Oh my God, I was just thinking of Charles on the day he died, I have not seen him in about 6 years, I used to cut his hair at Roswell Village Barber Shop, he was such a joy to talk to and made me laugh when he came in, one day he walked off with someone else keys and took them home, his care giver ask where he got these and he was like "I dont know", needless to say they brought them back for the real owner. It was always a good time when he came in
